1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

"Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope." Taken from today's second reading, this awesome summons should strike us on at least two levels.

First of all, it is a tremendous gift for us to have this opportunity. After-all, one has to be gifted with Christian faith and hope to offer a witness to it. As members of the Mystical Body of Christ, we have this gift as our heritage and responsibility! As part of this, we need to prayerfully ask ourselves if others even notice that we are people of hope; hope that is Incarnate, Jesus Christ!

Secondly, we need to ask ourselves if we would even share this hope with others. How hesitant are we to even make the sign of the cross before eating our meal at a restaurant? Do we think that others will "look" at us like religious fanatics or something? When someone attacks or maliciously maligns the Pope, the Church, priests, religious or Catholic practices, are we willing to step up and state the truth and defend our Faith?

The glorious season of Easter invites us to ponder the power and mystery of the Lord's resurrection. The power is meant for a purpose and that purpose is to enable us to respond to the Lord's call, which we will hear again and again in the next few weeks. That call asks us to go out and spread the truth of Jesus Christ...to let others know that we have been gifted with the power of the Risen Christ to help change our lives and the lives of others!

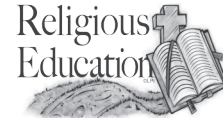

Ask yourself today: has anyone ever noticed that I am a Catholic? If they have, was it in a good way and how so? If no one ever has noticed anything, why not? Not bad "homework" for the coming week!

Just a brief "heads-up," the Solemnity of the Ascension of Jesus has been permanently transferred in the majority of dioceses in the USA to the Seventh Sunday of Easter; this year, May 28th.

Therefore, what you may read on your calendar is not correct!

May the Risen Savior shine upon us all this week! God bless you all!

Father Michael Leland

Thank You to everyone who participated and donated to the CRS Rice Bowl project this past Lent. Through your generosity we were able to maintain our level of support of the past two years.

You know our faith is vital for our temporal and spiritual life. You know you want your children to get the best education in the faith possible. You know that you are the most important and effective former of faith for your children. Now find out about a program to supplement your children's religious education at home: A Family of Faith from the Sophia Institute. With training help from the parish, you will be able to lead your children through the Catechism, and cover all facets of our Catholic faith.

Our recent parish survey indicated your interest in our young people's faith formation - perhaps this could be a useful supplementary tool for your family. Materials will be available in the narthex after the Masses for the next few weeks for you to preview and respond, or find more information on the website: sophiainstitute.com

The weekly Mass readings are full of information, symbolism, references to prophecy and history. It can be difficult to know and understand everything that is being said to us, like it was explained to the apostles and the Jewish people. Come hear an in-depth explanation of the Mass readings for every Sunday on Wednesday mornings at 10:00 a.m. or Wednesday evenings at 7:30 p.m. The cost is only one $5.00 charge for now until Advent. Come to your first session for free!

Have you ever played "stick it to the dealer" in euchre? Let's try it to find some catechists! Instead of volunteering yourself, nominate someone you know who you think should share their love of and familiarity with the Catholic faith with our young parishioners. Fill out a nomination form in the narthex, or send Matthew a message at mqpyouth-fallon@gmail.com
