1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

This weekend, we celebrate the great Solemnity of the Ascension! We hear the somewhat familiar "Jesus said to His disciples" in today's Mass. Perhaps it is too often we listen to the words as if they were a bit of historical writing and not much more.

We might instead perk up our own ears when we hear these words. Instead of hearing "Jesus said to His disciples", why not hear "Jesus says TO ME."

That would be very fitting at this celebration of the Ascension. For His words to His disciples and to us, today call for a renewed dedication to sharing the truth and life that come to us from Jesus through His Bride, the Church. The world is hungry for this life and truth. It is our privilege to share this!

Next weekend, our annual celebration of Easter concludes with the Solemnity of Pentecost. Jesus promised His infant Church that He would send an Advocate; One Who would remain with the Church for all ages to come.

The Holy Spirit comes that we might have life. Life in the Holy Spirit is a life that is dedicated to continuing the life and work of Christ Jesus on this earth. As the fifty-day celebration of Easter draws to a close next weekend, let us pray that the same Holy Spirit given the first Apostles at Pentecost, given us through the Sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation, will strengthen us in our own personal efforts to live a life of service and loyalty to Christ and His Church!

I'll close with the greatest Gift our Ascended Lord gave to His Church: the essential matter of the Holy Mass is its participation in the Liturgy of heaven. In other words: "that's what the Eucharist is all about! The Eucharist we celebrate on earth has its source in the heavenly Liturgy. And the heavenly Liturgy is the summit to which our Eucharistic celebration looks."

"And yet, how many of our people in the pews... how many of our priests at the altar...feel that they are being lifted up to partake in the heavenly Liturgy?"

Thanks for reading and God bless us all!

Father Michael Luttrell

"He is there!
He Who loves us
So much!"

Come Join the Fun

Come join fellow parishioners on a 1 or 3 mile walk or run every Wednesday night for ten weeks throughout the summer at a different Hendricks County Park each week. We will meet for the first time on Wednesday, June 7, at 5:30 p.m. on the west side of the Hendricks Regional YMCA. See more details on the event at <http://hendrickscountyparks.org/summer-fun-run-series-returns-in-june/>. Call Helen Corbitt @ 317-745-4773 with questions.

Thanks to the gentlemen who helped get buckets under all the roof leaks, and mopped up the pond by the back door in the RE building during the recent heavy rains.

You know our faith is vital for our temporal and spiritual life. You know you want your children to get the best education in the faith possible. You know that you are the most important and effective former of faith for your children. Now find out about a program to supplement your children's religious education at home: A Family of Faith from the Sophia Institute. With training help from the parish, you will be able to lead your children through the Catechism, and cover all facets of our Catholic faith.

Our recent parish survey indicated your interest in our young people's faith formation - perhaps this could be a useful supplementary tool for your family. Materials will be available in the narthex after the Masses for the next few weeks for you to preview and respond, or find more information on the website: sophiainstitute.com

Have you ever played "stick it to the dealer" in euchre? Let's try it to find some catechists! Instead of volunteering yourself, nominate someone you know who you think should share their love of and familiarity with the Catholic faith with our young parishioners. Fill out a nomination form in the narthex, or send Matthew a message at mqpy-outhfallon@gmail.com

You can still build your child(ren)'s faith during the summer at Vacation Bible School, here at our parish on the evenings of June 11-15. Watch for more information on sign-ups very soon!
