Prayer Line

If you know of someone who needs the special healing power of prayer, or to become a part of this ministry, call Fran Strauss at 317-745-5640.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

"I came that you may have life and have it more abundantly." With these words, proclaimed in today's Gospel, the risen Lord summons us to ponder anew the mystery of sharing in His resurrected life.

To embrace this mystery is to embrace a life filled with both abundance and challenge. Far too many people think that following Jesus should mean that their lives run smoothly all the time, they have no anxieties or worries; basically that everything is warm and fuzzy, sunshine and rainbows. Well, Easter surprise....it isn't!

The only way to the kind of abundance Jesus speaks of is through the gateway He has shown us...His total giving of Self for us. You know what that means..."So I have done, you must do also."

As we continue to celebrate the glory that is Easter, let us ask the Lord today for the grace and strength to ponder His promise with renewed faith. Remember, two weeks ago we celebrated Divine Mercy Sunday. The awesome words Jesus gave to St. Faustina need to remain in our hearts and lips always: "Jesus, I Trust In You!"

The Good Shepherd sometimes needs to knock the sheep in the rump with his staff in order to get them to go where they need to go and hear what they need to hear! That's kind of the stuff we don't want to think about, isn't it? But, it's true!

A wonderful witness to all of the above is what our parish celebrated last week at the 10:30 a.m. Mass. When we saw our children making their First Holy Communion, it should have rekindled within us that Eucharistic flame of faith and trust that we profess. When we witnessed their innocence and wonder at receiving Jesus for the first time, it should have made us pray for that same innocence of faith; that same innocence and trust to follow the lead of our Good Shepherd. It served as an occasion of renewal and rededication not only to the Holy Mass and the Sacred Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, but also to learning more about our Catholic faith, our traditions, devotions and truths!

May Jesus, our Good Shepherd; our Eucharistic Jesus, always smile upon us all!

Father Michael Lutzel

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Kathy Willard, daughter of Ron & Pat Birchler, and for the care and consolation of her family. May she rest in the loving arms of our Father in heaven.

The school-aged religious education classes are ending this week. Have a wonderful and blessed summer vacation! Thank you so much to our terrific catechists who give so much of themselves to their students.

And come celebrate summer with us on Wednesday, June 21, at the Twin Bridges lodge (by the soccer fields, not the golf course) for a pitch-in dinner, s'mores, and games!

The adult RE class "The Catholic Letters" began this week, but if you were hesitant and want to join us, let Matthew Fallon know right away. We can still order your study materials early this week ($20).

Would your child(ren) prefer to learn or learn better at home? Take a look at "A Family of Faith" at: sophiainstitute.com, or examine the materials Matthew has in his office by appointment. He can bring them to Mass, too.

This is a catechism-based religious education program for you to teach and learn at home. You won't be completely on your own! There would be regular parental gatherings to make sure you understand the material, and share your efforts and progress. If you like it, we can begin this coming fall.

We will need to add some new catechists next fall to help our young Catholics learn more of their faith. Please consider whether God wants to work through you to spread his love, then call Matthew with questions or to sign up.
