Time & Talent

We would like to thank Mary & Tom O'Brien for their love and faithfulness to all the homebound people that they visit and to whom they bring Communion.

The parishioners of St. Mary, Queen of Peace extend a warm welcome to our newest members:

Graham & Corrine Youngs
Gary & Vianca Stallard, and their children, Maria, Alex, Hazelynn, and Riley

MQP Softball Team

We lost 18-7. There was a great turn out! Lots of fun and laughs. Highlights of the game: Ryan Burd in center field almost threw out a runner at home base. We almost had a double play, and Brian Hazelton did a fine job at pitching. Our next game is on Monday, July 3, at 6:00 p.m. against Westbridge Church at the south field in Ellis Park. Come and join the fun!

Bereavement Ministry

If you have lost a loved one recently or know of a parishioner who has, please contact Helen Disney so that we can include the family in our ministry. 317-745-4867 or jimandhelendisney@gmail.com

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

This week's Gospel affords us the very consoling words of Jesus, "Come to Me, all you who are heavily burdened and I will give you rest." Now, who among us does not feel the need once in a while, for a little rest....perhaps much rest! The beautiful image Jesus offers us of the yoke should nudge us to recall that it takes two oxen to pull a yoke. Jesus Christ is our partner you might say. Without Him we couldn't do it, could we? And yet, how often we forget this important part of the image and concentrate only on the yoke.

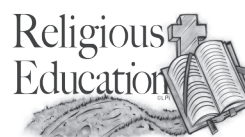

You know, each one of us, no matter our vocation or state in life, knows that at times we will stray off the path and fall into sin. Yet, Christ is there to welcome the repentant sinner back; to once more take up His part of the yoke and walk beside us! Thank God He is!

This weekend we as a nation, begin the celebration of our Fourth of July this Tuesday! We pray at Mass this weekend in thanksgiving we have received as a people and for the work that remains for us to do. As President Kennedy said in his inaugural address way back in 1961; "God's work must surely be our own." Where does the summer go??!

I would like to announce that Ricardo Laranja, our wonderful accompanist, is now our new Music Director for our Music Program. Ricardo has been playing here for a year now and will direct the choir as well as playing and planning music along with myself. Ed Hennes chose not to renew his work agreement as of July 1, 2017. We wish Ed the best in the future.

Have a great week, everyone! God bless us all!

Father Michael Leland

Our Lady of Fatima is sponsoring a pilgrimage to the shrine of Our Lady of Fatima in Oldenburg (motherhouse of the Sisters of Saint Francis). The trip by chartered bus will leave from 5353 East 56th Street at 9 a.m. on July 13th. The day will include Mass, lunch, shopping, and prayers at the shrine, and return to Indy by 5:30pm. The cost is $59 for transportation, light breakfast, and lunch. Registration is required by July 11th; call Marcia at 317-545-7681.

The Church expects us to participate in the sacrament of reconciliation at least once per year (especially during the Easter season). How long has it been since your child(ren) repaired their relationship with God, damaged by sin? He is always ready to forgive a contrite heart! You have a special invitation to bring your child(ren) to make their confession this Saturday from 3:30- 4:30 p.m., and receive the grace of God in their life. Every child who attends will receive a memoriam of God's forgiveness. After all, if they never receive the sacrament now, with you, will they choose to do so on their own later?

Paul Caranci helped the FBI expose and prosecute political corruption in his native Rhode Island. While the cases were working through the courts, Paul came to Indiana to live, and work with Todd Rokita. While he was here he attended Mass at MQP!! Perhaps you met him? Paul has written a book about the investigation and his role in rooting out corrupt politicians. He will be holding a book-reading and signing on July 11th at 6:30 p.m., at Indy Reads Books bookstore (911 Massachusetts Avenue -Indy).

There are several adult retreats taking place this summer at St. Meinrad Archabbey. Take a look to find out the themes of the retreats- maybe you'll want to take a weekend to concentrate on your relationship with God.

Religious Education classes will begin earlier this year: August 20th. Registration forms will be sent home via email this summer to families who were registered last season. Some hard-copies will be available in the narthex for newcomers to the RE program. If you would prefer a packet of forms rather than the email, please contact Matthew Fallon to make your request. Registrations received after July will be charged a $15 late fee!

Congratulations to Jean Knarr! Jean has completed the first of two years of the Archdiocese catechist certification process. Jean joined our program this past season, and leads the Level 4 religious education class along with Mallorie Moore.

NCYC

Here I Am Lord • Aquí Estoy Señor

NOVEMBER 19-21, 2015 • INDIANAPOLIS

Are any of your high school youth interested in the National Catholic Youth Conference (NCYC) that is held in Downtown Indianapolis? NCYC is a weekend event starting on Thursday and goes through Sunday, which brings about 23,000 Catholics together to praise and worship with famous speakers and music from Toby Mac. If your child is interested at all, we are having a parent meeting Wednesday, July 12, at 6:30 p.m. and one on Sunday, July 16, at 6:30 p.m. in the youth room. We will have a packet of information regarding the weekend! You will need to be registered by August 1, 2017. If you want to register, forms are available on the National Catholic Youth Conference website.

TRIVIA CHALLENGE

Answers to last week's questions: The first Catholic parish in Indiana was St. Francis Xavier Church in Vincennes founded in 1732. Mary Queen of Peace was established in 1939.

This week's questions:

- We have a new Archbishop, Charles Thompson. Including Archbishop Thompson, how many bishops have led the Archdiocese of Indianapolis?
- Who was the first bishop in Indiana?

Look here next week for the answers!
