"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

As was announced on June 13th, the Archdiocese has been blessed with the appointment of a new Archbishop-elect! Bishop Charles (Chuck) Thompson of the Evansville diocese, is going to be formally installed at our Cathedral of Sts. Peter and Paul on Friday, July 28th. I do not know him personally; only through priests friends in the Evansville diocese. He is said to be very personable. Finally, we have a new Archbishop! It will be a big job to follow Cardinal Tobin but we wish Archbishop-elect Thompson our prayers and support and our welcome!

The Gospel passage we have focused on the reasons why the Lord Jesus came among us: to save the sinner and to call those same sinners into discipleship. So much for falling back on the old canard of "I'm not worthy," right?

This week, our Lord tells His disciples (and us, of course) that this road of salvation and discipleship is not an easy one. So much for "warm and fuzzy," right?

If we truly live our Catholic faith we will be faced with hardships. In a society that often values the accumulation of wealth and popularity above all else, it is often very difficult to swim against the tide.

We will endure inner divisions. In other words, our hearts will at times be torn on which way to go, what to believe, what to do. Others will ridicule our values; our solid dedication to life and the teachings of Jesus given us.

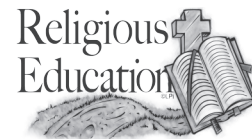

Even in the midst of hardship, St. Paul reminds us that the grace of God and the gracious gift that is Jesus Christ will overflow for us; giving us inner peace and joy. Now granted, we all know this is sometimes hard to experience but that's due more to our own lack of trust than the presence and offer of Jesus. Let's pray today that the message of Jesus both challenges and offers us hope, grace and joy!

I want to share a true story about Eucharistic Adoration. At one parish, I was in the church and a little guy, I'd say around four, was there with his mom. All of a sudden, he got up, went to the step in front of the altar, and knelt down, gazing up at our Lord in the monstrance. I thought to myself, "THAT'S what it's all about!" If our parish does nothing else, instilling in our youth a true love for Jesus present to us in the Blessed Sacrament, will take care of all the rest. It was a beautiful example of the young being led to Jesus Who comes to us at each Mass and humbly remains in our midst in our Tabernacles, inviting and awaiting us to come to Him!

May Jesus, in the Most Blessed Sacrament, continue to bless you and our parish!

Father Michael Lutza

Our Lady of Fatima is sponsoring a pilgrimage to the shrine of Our Lady of Fatima in Oldenburg (motherhouse of the Sisters of Saint Francis). The trip by chartered bus will leave from 5353 East 56th Street at 9 a.m. on July 13th. The day will include Mass, lunch, shopping, and prayers at the shrine, and return to Indy by 5:30pm. The cost is $59 for transportation, light breakfast, and lunch. Registration is required by July 11th; call Marcia at 317-545-7681.

Only 50% of our 5th and 8th grade students could correctly identify the definition of the sacrament of reconciliation on our last religious education assessment test. We learn best by doing! Let's make a push to have our children participate in the sacrament of reconciliation this coming Saturday from 3:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. All children who receive God's love and forgiveness will receive a remembrance keepsake.

The Bear's Breeches bush at the corner of the RE building has two flower stalks! They are a bit unusual and spiky-looking. Come take a look!

Paul Caranci helped the FBI expose and prosecute political corruption in his native Rhode Island. While the cases were working through the courts, Paul came to Indiana to live, and work with Todd Rokita. While he was here he attended Mass at MQP!! Perhaps you met him? Paul has written a book about the investigation and his role in rooting out corrupt politicians. He will be holding a book-reading and signing on July 11th at 6:30 p.m., at Indy Reads Books bookstore (911 Massachusetts Avenue -Indy).

There are several adult retreats taking place this summer at St. Meinrad Archabbey. Take a look to find out the themes of the retreats- maybe you'll want to take a weekend to concentrate on your relationship with God.

Thanks to the Genin family for the donation of additional curtains for the RE building!

MQP Walks the HC Parks!

Enjoy this fantastic weather with a little exercise with fellow parishioners! Meet in the church parking lot at 5:00 p.m. Wednesday, June 28, to car pool to Hummel Park or meet us there to start walking at 5:30 p.m. You can sign up ahead of time for the Summer Fun Run Series at HendricksCountyParks.org. Call Helen Corbitt, 317-745-4773, with questions.

MQP Softball Team

Our first game was lost to Calvary Christian Church, 15 to 13. It was a close and exciting game. Come out and play! The next game is on Monday, June 26, at 7:30 p.m. against Northview Christian Church on the north field at the Danville Park.

TRIVIA CHALLENGE

- Where was the first Catholic parish in Indiana founded, and in what year?
- What year was Mary, Queen of Peace founded in Danville?
