"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

In last week's readings, our Lord Jesus summoned us to develop the trait of humility. This week we are asked to develop the trait of receptivity.

Due to family obligations, work obligations and the general busy-ness of our lives, often we do not take the time we need simply to allow Jesus to speak to us. The metaphors used in today's scripture readings remind us that we need to be like the fertile soil, awaiting the rain and nutrients that will enrich that soil.

For us, the "rain and nutrients" are the Word of God, the Sacraments of the Church and the teaching of the Magisterium. Without these key necessities, we will not be the fertile soil, nor will we sprout new life and provide nourishment for ourselves and others. Perhaps today, we could ask ourselves two questions. One, how receptive am I to Jesus? Secondly, how can I become even more so in the future? As always, let us pray for one another on our journey of faith!

A very important and crucial anniversary is fast approaching us. On July 25, 1968, Pope Paul VI issued his encyclical letter Humanae Vitae. I was reading Paul Thigpen's editorial in The Catholic Answer. In part, he said that in this prophetic Magisterial letter, Pope Paul laid out the reasons why artificial contraception is gravely immoral. In it, he noted that the desire to contracept is only one of many modern attempts to extend our control over every aspect of life, including those aspects that represent a mystery not of our own making, much less of our own understanding.

In short, it's an endeavor to play God, and a dangerous one indeed. When much of a society comes to believe-as ours has-that the miracle of life's transmission is simply one more mechanical function to manipulate at will, then the "products of conception," as they are now termed (we once called them "children") are viewed as nothing more than a disposable commodity.

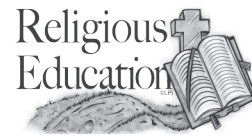

So, many feel free to abort them. We buy and sell them. We use them as lab rats. We figure their costs to see whether we can work them into our lives.

Pope Paul VI very courageously declared that children are gifts from God to be gratefully received, not assets to be calculated or, even worse, liabilities to be disposed of. Over forty years later, we must acknowledge the Holy Father's prophetic insight and mourn a world that has largely rejected his warning.

Isn't it wonderful....we are right in the midst of the season of summer. Sure, we complain about the heat but we also complain about the cold in winter! Perhaps it's part of original sin; we like to complain! The building committee will once more go before the Archdiocesan Building Committee this week to discuss our feasibility study regarding our possible campaign to renovate and expand our facilities. Let's pray that the Holy Spirit moves our parish to commitment to this very important asset to our faith family!

God's blessings to you all!

Father Michael Luttrell

Religious Education registration forms and information packets are being sent home electronically this year to all families who were registered last year. If you are new to the parish, or we did not have your email address from last year, there are registration packets available for you in the narthex.

Or you can share your email address with Matthew in the office: mqpyouthfallon@gmail.com

We are not set up to take payments online; the forms will need to be printed and returned (with payment) to the narthex or the office.

Classes will begin August 20th!!

Welcome to Kelli Dillon and Amy Kotlarski, who have joined our staff of catechists in the religious education classes! Thank you! We are happy to have you helping form the faith of our young Catholics! We are planning to meet as a staff on Thursday, July 27, at 7:30 p.m. to begin preparations for the coming religious education season.

We are still in need of two catechists for the kindergarten class, and another catechist to help our veteran catechist in the Level 7 class.

Adult religious education classes will resume after Labor Day, the week of September 10. As this is year A of the cycle of liturgical readings, which extensively uses Matthew's Gospel, we will explore the Gospel of Matthew. One offering will be the study from Jeff Cavins and The Great Adventure study series, which is 24 meetings (Sunday and weeknight) and will run through April. A shorter study of Matthew (10 meetings) will also be offered during the fall. Please see the sign-up sheets on the stairwell bulletin board for more information, and to join the study.

Matthew Fallon will be attending the John Bosco religious education conference this week at Franciscan University in Steubenville, Ohio. Any communications will be delayed while he is out-of-state; thank you for your patience.

For All Young Adult Parishioners

THEOLOGY ON TAP: a gathering to discuss our faith among other young adults. The theme for the meetings this summer is Living Life Abundantly. Dates are July 26, August 9, August 23 at the Bent Rail Brewery (Winthrop Ave., Indy). Meeting time is 7:00 p.m., but come earlier for social time!

Our cohort parish, St. Susanna, is hosting a ministry group for adults 18-35. It is led by Katie Maples and Kendall Griffingood people! Their contact information to learn more about the group and when it meets is on the bulletin board in the narthex.

Oktoberfest 2017

Mark your calendars for our 3rd annual Oktoberfest on Saturday, September 16. Bring the whole family for an evening of fun, music, good food, games, prizes and more! Tickets go on sale at the end of July. Please note that this is the main fundraiser for our parish. Contact Mike Wigger at 317-374-6023 for more information. Raffle tickets are currently being sold. See information in the Narthex. Contact Joe Pecar 317-840-1401 for more information. Thanks!

We will be going to an Indianapolis Indians game on Sunday, July 30. The game is at 1:35 p.m. If your teen is interested in attending, please sign them up in the narthex. You can also make this game a family event if you would like. We will meet after 10:30 Mass in the Narthex the day of the game. We will need to know if you are attending by Sunday, July 23rd.

If your teen is interested in Middle School or High School Youth Group events, please see the Youth Group table in the Narthex. There is a Tentative Yearly Schedule; please take one. If you write down your information on the sheet next to it, you will receive e-mails and reminders about dates and changes to the schedule.
