Time & Talent

Thank you to Dianne and Mike Guadaitis for helping to make our entryway and church gardens so beautiful!

Please pray for the repose of the souls of Carolyn Kashman, and for Wayne Hamilton, brother of Bruce & Cathryn Hamilton, and for the care and consolation of their families. May they rest in the loving arms of our Father in heaven.

Carolyn Kashman

Carolyn worked for many years as a volunteer in the office here at Mary, Queen of Peace. She gave freely of her time and her talents.

Words cannot express the beauty and dignity that Carolyn possessed. She was a woman though slight in stature was very strong. She was a woman of great Faith; she worked at it every day. It was evident by the way she showed great patience and kindness with everyone who walked through the door. Carolyn knew how to do a good job in a precise and discreet way. She learned how to use the computer at a late age and helped with recordkeeping in the office. She was faithful to the task no matter what it was. It was always obvious that Carolyn loved God, loved His church, and served Him with all that she had.

She was devoted to our Blessed Mother. She helped others to know and love Mary the way she did. She made and supplied more rosaries than anyone could count. We all knew that those rosaries had her prayers attached to them. We are so very blessed to have had Carolyn as a volunteer and a dear friend. She will be greatly missed.

Donations will be accepted in honor of our Blessed Mother, Mary, Queen of Peace, The Sacred Heart of Jesus, or St. Joseph and given in the name of whomever you choose. Envelopes can be dropped in the collection. Thank you, The Liturgy Committee

For all those living in assisted living and nursing homes, also Pauline Cave, Peggy Cave, Bob Elliott, Geraldine Ehrsam, Rita Fritsch, Jim Goldman, Denny Kashman, Bob Kult, Felicia Osmialowski, Goldie Parsons, Al Root, Diane Thompson, and Gene Trapp. We ask that the Lord heal them and restore them to good health.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Each week we have the privilege to gather in this sacred place we call St. Mary, Queen of Peace to celebrate the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. There is a statistic that someone put together that says that two out of every four people who attend some sort of worship liturgy on a regular basis in this country are hurting in some way. This means that if you happen not to be 'hurting' in some way this week, chances are that two of the people sitting near you are.

One reason many people attend Mass is to bring the cares and worries to the altar of God in the hope that the Lord will somehow lift them from their shoulders. It's not the best reason to attend Mass, but it's a good one.

Today's Gospel is a wellspring of comfort and strength. As we depart from Mass today, let us pray that the Lord will give rest to those who are weighed down. Pray that all of us will find rest in the Lord Jesus, whose yoke is easy, and whose burden is light!

This weekend, our parish welcomes Fr. Joseph Cox of St. Meinrad Archabbey and Seminary. Fr. Joseph will share with us their work and ministry. Primarily of course, St. Meinrad was founded and their main mission remains, the education of our future priests. Most priests of the Archdiocese were, at some point in seminary training, at St. Meinrad. Welcome, Fr. Joseph!

It is hard to believe but on July 2nd, I began my 4th year here at St. Mary! Where does the time go? Danville and our parish are both great places to be but YOU all make it feel like home. I thank you for that!

God's blessing be upon us all!

Father Michael Lutard

Mark your calendars for our 3rd annual Octoberfest on Saturday, September 16. Bring the whole family for an evening of fun, music, good food, games, prizes and more! Raffle tickets are currently being sold. See information in the Narthex. Contact Joe Pecar 317-840-1401 for more information. Thanks!

The Weekly Mass Readings Explained videos on Wednesday evenings are being cancelled due to lack of attendance. Instead, they will be shown for the month of July and early August between the Masses at 9:00 a.m. First viewing is free - then a one-time fee of $5.00 allows you to watch any week until Advent. The Wednesday morning viewing will remain unchanged.

Our Lady of Fatima is sponsoring a pilgrimage to the shrine of Our Lady of Fatima in Oldenburg (motherhouse of the Sisters of Saint Francis). This is the order of nuns who run Marian University. The trip by chartered bus will leave from 5353 East 56th Street at 9 a.m. on July 13th. The day will include Mass, lunch, shopping, and prayers at the shrine, and return to Indy by 5:30pm. The cost is $59 for transportation, light breakfast, and lunch. Registration is required by July 11th; call Marcia at 317-545-7681.

Paul Caranci helped the FBI expose and prosecute political corruption in his native Rhode Island. While the cases were working through the courts, Paul came to Indiana to live, and work with Todd Rokita. While he was here he attended Mass at MQP!! Perhaps you met him? Paul has written a book about the investigation and his role in rooting out corrupt politicians. He will be holding a book-reading and signing on July 11th at 6:30 p.m., at Indy Reads Books bookstore (911 Massachusetts Avenue -Indy).

There are several adult retreats taking place this summer at St. Meinrad Archabbey. Take a look to find out the themes of the retreats- maybe you'll want to take a weekend to concentrate on your relationship with God.

Religious Education registration forms and information packets are being sent home electronically this year to all families who were registered last year. If you are new to the parish, or otherwise would like to receive these, share your email address with Matthew in the office: mqpyouthfallon@gmail.com We are not set up to take payments online; the forms will need to be printed and returned (with payment) to the narthex or the office.

Classes will begin August 20th!!

Congratulations to Jean Knarr! Jean has completed the first of two years of the Archdiocese catechist certification process. Jean joined our program this past season, and leads the Level 4 religious education class along with Mallorie Moore.

We will be going to an Indianapolis Indians game on Sunday, July 30. The game is at 1:35 p.m. If your teen is interested in attending, please sign them up in the narthex. You can also make this game a family event if you would like. We will meet after 10:30 Mass in the Narthex the day of the game. We will need to know if you are attending by Sunday, July 23rd.

Ministry Scheduling

There has been an update to the liturgical ministries scheduling software. These updates allow for interaction between the user and the software. You not only have the ability to update your personal information, availability, etc, you can also respond to the weekly reminder, sending out an automatic request for a sub should you be unable to meet your assigned commitment. As we approach the end of this scheduling cycle, Mary Kay Hood has agreed to take over the scheduling responsibilities. Please be patient during this time of transition. If anyone has questions, don't hesitate to reach out to Mary Kay.

Are any of your high school youth interested in the National Catholic Youth Conference (NCYC) that is held in Downtown Indianapolis? NCYC is a weekend event starting on Thursday and goes through Sunday, which brings about 23,000 Catholics together to praise and worship with famous speakers and music from Toby Mac. If your child is interested at all, we are having a parent meeting Wednesday, July 12, at 6:30 p.m. and one on Sunday, July 16, at 6:30 p.m. in the youth room. We will have a packet of information regarding the weekend! You will need to be registered by August 1, 2017. If you want to register, forms are available on the National Catholic Youth Conference website.

Answers to last week's questions: Including our newest Archbishop-elect, we have had seven archbishops serve the Archdiocese of Indianapolis. The first bishop in Indiana was Simon Brute.

This week's questions:

- Who is the first saint from Indiana, known as the patron saint of Indianapolis?
- How many dioceses are there in Indiana?

Look here next week for the answers!
