1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

In today's Mass we hear "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." We've heard that many times before. Sadly it seems that it goes in one ear and out the other. It's always good for us to be reminded of this "great commandment."

We don't have to look very far to see that this great commandment simply has not taken root in our hearts. What are we called to do? First, we can heed this commandment in our marriages, families, parish and school. Second, we can acknowledge the truth of the great commandment. It comes down to basic respect and Christian charity and kindness. It sounds so very simple but amazingly, we seem to have a hard time putting it to practice. At times, it boggles the mind doesn't it?

Let us welcome Christ Jesus in this holy place and look to Him to be our strength as we strive to live the great commandment each day of our lives! Perhaps you could name one opportunity you will have in the coming week to respond to the commandment to "love your neighbor as yourself."

Our boys and girls have returned to Religious Education Class. It's a perfect opportunity for us all to pray for them. And, to pray for all parents and catechists as they commit themselves once more to the tremendous heritage we share in the Catholic Church! An informational meeting will take place this Tuesday, September 12th, for RCIA, at 7:00 p.m. If you or someone you know is interested in the Catholic Faith, come along!

This is the FINAL weekend to purchase tickets for our OKTOBERFEST-2017! This is the fundraising event for our parish, so let's all make it a huge success this year! Volunteers are working very hard to make sure everyone has a great time! See you there!

God's blessings upon us all!

Father Michael Lutzel

Welcome back to religious education classes. We will continue until our next break: October 15 and 22.

Level 2 class parents: we will have our parent meeting about the sacrament of reconciliation on Thursday, September 21, at 7:30 p.m. in the church. The Investiture ceremony will follow on September 24 at the start of the religious education class; we will meet in the church.

Our subscription to "The Weekly Mass Readings Explained" expires at the beginning of Advent. If there is a better time for you to view these terrifically enlightening, educating half-hour videos, PLEASE CONTACT MATTHEW FALLON. We will do our absolute best to accommodate people, but without more viewers taking part we may need to let our subscription lapse.

Adult Religious Education: The year-long study "Matthew, the King and His Kingdom" with Jeff Cavins, will begin this Sunday at 9:00 a.m., and follow the religious education calendar (a copy of this schedule may be found on the bulletin board at the top of the stairs). Meet in the religious education building, first room on the left.

The second, shorter study of the Gospel of Matthew will begin on Thursday, September 14, at 10:00 a.m. It will meet in the same room in the religious education building.

Mum Pickup & Sales

Pre-ordered mums will be available for pick-up this weekend and next. Additional plants in a variety of colors will still be available for purchase these two weeks, while supplies last.

On Sunday, September 24 after 10:30 Mass, the Middle School Youth Group is going to the Children's Museum. We return around 4:30. We will go to Subway before we leave for the museum. If you are interested, there is a sign-up sheet on the bulletin board in the narthex.

On Saturday, September 16, we will need help with the Oktoberfest. If you are interested in helping with this night for the youth, please contact Beth Dieckmann.
