"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

As we gather for Holy Mass this weekend, perhaps in our minds, we think back on the anniversary we observed this past Monday, the sixteenth anniversary of the horrible and diabolical attacks of September 11, 2001. Today's scriptures are timely and incredibly challenging for us because they speak about forgiveness.

Sirach tells us "to forgive your neighbor's injustice." Our Lord tells St. Peter that he must forgive not seven times, but seventy-seven times. Forgiveness in the face of incalculable tragedy, hate and enormous brutality can be unthinkable for many, even for devoted Christians and those who survive such attacks.

Yet, here we are with these words of Our Lord Jesus, calling us to forgive. There simply is no easy answer on an anniversary like last Monday. Perhaps, all many of us can do is simply to pray for an end to violence and hate and those systems of mankind that breed and support terrorism of any kind. Our Lord knows none of us will do this perfectly. He does, however, expect us to try. Today, let us pray for this grace. And, let us pray for our nation and for peace.

We continue our prayers for the victims of Hurricanes Harvey and Irma. We are SO blessed here not having to face what Texas and Florida experienced. While devastating, it was so good to see folks helping others; putting aside all the rancor and bitterness that has come to characterize our national landscape so much. Let us pray the spirit continues!

Because of bulletin deadlines, I am writing this before Saturday's celebration of OKTOBERFEST. While difficult to predict, I feel as I write that the event was a success. I want to thank EVERYONE who helped in ANY way with the Oktoberfest-'17! I always look forward to it and I know many others do as well.

A quick reminder that the Parish Council has a meeting this coming Wednesday, September 20, at 6:30 p.m. Work continues on preparations for an upcoming coordinating meeting for a Capital Building Campaign. Together, we CAN do this for our parish! If asked to become involved in a specific manner....please say "YES!"

Have a prayer-full week, everyone!

Father Michael Lutzel
