25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage?
 Take what is yours and go. What if I wish to give this last one the same as you? Or am I not free to do as I wish with my own money?
 Are you envious because I am generous?’ Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last.” Mt 20:13c-16

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

"For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways My ways, says the Lord."

It is close to impossible for us to grasp the depths of God's mercy and generosity, isn't it? We need look no further than the parable in today's Gospel for an example.

Most people today would think that the landowner is clearly in the wrong for paying someone who worked a full day the same wage as someone who worked only the last hour of the day. Fair is fair, right?

Obviously the parable is not about social justice or the federal minimum wage act, or labor unions. It is meant to grab our attention and to get us thinking about God's MERCY. Very simply, our Father's ways of thinking and acting are often times not our ways of thinking and acting. Our Father wants us to know that we have the need to turn our lives around. God always, always desires us each and every moment of our lives.

Perhaps you could reflect on one way you have experienced the Father's generous mercy. How does this find expression in your daily life?

Our parish church is beginning to show its age (aren't we all!?) As with any facility, things wear out and need replacing. For example, there are several spots in the church that need serious repair to dry wall where leaks have taken place over the years. Or, perhaps things can be added to beautify existing space. One thing I often hear from visitors and parishioners alike is, "Father, the church is nice, very 'Catholic-looking,' but it's also somewhat dark and 'cold.' Often, while alone in the church, I find myself looking around and thinking the same thing. But, I also ponder, 'what could we do to make the space 'warmer'? I haven't a concrete (no pun intended) conclusion. I will continue to ponder..."

So many folks worked SO HARD to insure the success of OKTOBERFEST '17. As I mentioned last week, I cannot list everyone but the Fest continues to grow each year, which is awesome! BUT, with growth, we always will need more volunteers to make it happen successfully.

We have no final totals as far as funds raised but I am certain it will be fruitful! Again, DANKE, TO ALL!!

May Our Lady bless you all!!

Father Michael Lutzel

On Sunday, October 1, we will be hosting vocation speakers for the Levels 3 to 7 classes. Please show our guests courtesy and respect by arriving punctually.

Our annual Living Rosary, led by the Level 6 class and joined by the rest of the upper classes, will be held on Sunday, October 8, at 9:15 a.m., on the grass between the religious education building and Mackey Road. The entire parish is invited to join us in reciting this devotional prayer to our spiritual Mother. There may even be a spot for you to lead one of the Hail Mary's!

The annual archdiocesan "Morning with Mary" will be Saturday, October 14, downtown in the Cathedral (1347 N. Meridian St.), from 9 a.m. to noon. This year the morning will honor the 100th anniversary of Mary's appearances at Fatima. Nationally known speaker Heather Renshaw and Sister Mary Nicolette Etienne, OSB will address the gathering. Doors will open at 8 a.m., with light refreshments served in the Catholic Center assembly hall (across the street).

Our teens are planning a mission trip next summer. Why should they have all the fun? Nazareth Farm also holds mission weeks for adults and families. Search nazarethfarm.org for information about the program, and then contact Matthew Fallon about the group we're forming to go on mission next July/August!

Confirmation 2107 parents: we would like to display paired communion and confirmation photos in the religious education building. Does anyone have a nice group photo of this spring's confirmation class? You can send an electronic file to: mqpyouthfallon@gmail.com
