TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY ~ IN ~ ORDINARY TIME

“Which of the two did his father’s will?”
 They answered, “The first.” Jesus said to them,
 “Amen, I say to you, tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you.”

– Mt 21:31

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Missed opportunities. Life seems filled with them. We've all had them. Today at Mass we heard another parable. This one concerned the landowner who plants a vineyard. I hope you heard the final line of the parable carefully: "The kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit."

Sometimes we have to wonder if we realize that we were given the responsibility of building the kingdom of Jesus when we were baptized. This doesn't mean accomplishing great feats of herculean effort in life. Not everyone is cut out for that. What it does usually mean for us is that we nurture and sustain not only our own Catholic faith but we also nurture and encourage the Catholic faith of others. We help to build His kingdom of truth, peace and respect. We willingly invite and encourage others into the Church. We unashamedly let others know how important the Eucharist is in our lives.

Unfortunately, in the days in which we live, deny it or not, overtly signs of our Catholic/Christian Faith, are barely tolerated by many people. We need to always remember the prophetic words of Pope-Emeritus Benedict XVI when he was first elected. The Church may be smaller in the future; grand edifices we once built and used may be closed and merged, but the Church will be much more faithful and united in the proclamation of our Catholic Faith. It will be so out of both obedience to the command of Our Lord but also out of necessity.

These are the fruits of the vineyard of the kingdom of Jesus. When we depart from Mass today let's not roll through this life missing the opportunities to help build Jesus' kingdom by our acts of stewardship!

As we have entered this month of October, remember it is traditionally known as the Month of the Holy Rosary. As individuals and as families, pray the rosary! Our Religious Ed students will be participating in the praying of the rosary this month also. Our Liturgy Commission will be leading the parish in the recitation of the Holy Rosary 20 minutes before each weekend Mass during this special month. Remember, also, we offer Adoration and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament this coming Thursday and First Friday for a generous increase in vocations! Come, let us adore Him!

Father Michael Suted

Our annual Living Rosary, led by the Level 6 class and joined by the rest of the upper classes, will be held on Sunday, October 8, at 9:15 a.m., on the grass between the religious education building and Mackey Road. The entire parish is invited to join us in reciting this devotional prayer to our spiritual Mother. There may even be a spot for you to lead one of the Hail Mary's!

The annual archdiocesan "Morning with Mary" will be Saturday, October 14, downtown in the Cathedral (1347 N. Meridian St.), from 9 a.m. to noon. This year the morning will honor the 100th anniversary of Mary's appearances at Fatima. Nationally known speaker Heather Renshaw and Sister Mary Nicolette Etienne, OSB will address the gathering. Doors will open at 8 a.m., with light refreshments served in the Catholic Center assembly hall (across the street).

Our teens are planning a mission trip in the future. Why should they have all the fun? Nazareth Farm also holds mission weeks for adults and families. Search nazarethfarm.org for information about the program, and then contact Matthew Fallon about the group we're forming to go on mission next July/August!

Confirmation 2107 parents: we would like to display paired communion and confirmation photos in the religious education building. Does anyone have a nice group photo of this spring's confirmation class? You can send an electronic file to: mqpyouthfallon@gmail.com

On Saturday, October 7, we will be having our Middle School Fall Retreat at St. Michael's. It is for 6th grade to 8th grade teens. If you are interested, please let Beth Dieckmann know and she will have more information in the future.

On Sunday, October 8, we will be having a High School Movie Night after 10:30 Mass. Meet downstairs and we will have pizza.
