29th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He said to them, "Whose image is this and whose inscription?"
They replied, "Caesar's." At that he said to them, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." - Mt 22:20-21

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Mission Statement

We, the people of Mary, Queen of Peace, are called to be a Catholic faith community centered around prayer and worship and embodying Gospel values. We are a family of Christians committed to growth in faith and holiness as signs of God's presence in the world. We act in imitation of Christ, by reaching beyond ourselves in service to others.

Time & Talent

Thank you to Mike Rollins, Leo Schubert and Dan Dreyer for repairing the outdoor flood light on the Education Building. We appreciate all the time and special talent that you give to our parish.

Welcoming Reception

All new parishioners are invited to a welcoming reception in the basement of the church this Sunday, October 22, at 11:30 a.m. This is an excellent opportunity to get to know your parish better, learn about Church ministries, the many ways to get Involved and to pick up your welcome packet. Light refreshments will be served. Contact Peg Glover at pmglover25@comcast.net.

TEENS CAN EARN $1,000!

Or $300 and $150 in the Maryknoll Essay Contest. Middle school and high school divisions are available, and the essay question is a straight-forward one. Find more information about the contest and an entry form on the bulletin board at the top of the stairs.

Ministry Appreciation

A Ministry Appreciation Dinner will be held after the 5:00 p.m. Mass, Saturday, October 28, hosted by the Liturgy Committee.

This is you! Servers, Readers, Ministers of Hospitality, Music Ministers, Mass Coordinators, and Extra-Ordinary Ministers of Communion.

Please bring your favorite covered dish, meat and drinks will be provided. There will be a sign-up sheet in the Narthex next weekend, or rsvp_tjmobrien@sbcglobal.net or cell 317-627-0752.

Live entertainment will be provided and door prizes will be available! Save the date!

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

"Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." None of us needs to be reminded about the fundamental meaning of this exhortation of our Lord. Nor, do we need reminded about what it means to "repay to Caesar." It's the "repay to God" part that somehow gets us into trouble.

Jesus was telling His disciples that, in the earthly realm, God has given and provided authorities and governments over us. And, just as we benefit (hopefully!) from these governments, we, in turn, owe the government our loyalty and support in all areas of just law. The emphasis here being on "just" law. A law that rejects the respect of life and dignity of each human person requires a collaborative effort to be repealed; all within the framework of government. Again, I believe most people have a good grasp of this.

Now then, what about the "repay to God" part of the equation? Take a deep breath. You have just experienced once again what it means to "repay to God." It was God Who created us! To give back to God means to give our lives back to Him. This we do in our attitudes, actions and spirituality.

Living life in this way is the way of the good steward who sees everything as a reflection of our Father's total generosity of love and justice given and shown us through His Only Begotten Son, Jesus Christ!

Remember our "Welcoming Gathering" immediately following the 10:30 Mass on this Sunday. It's an opportunity to welcome newcomers to our wonderful parish and to visit with one another! Hope you all consider coming downstairs for the event!

In the narthex you will find a basket on the gifts table with this year's ALL SOULS ENVELOPES. You are invited to list the names of your beloved dead and return no later than Sunday, October 29th. (Please print the names in order that they might be easily transcribed...thank you!) These names will then be inscribed in our parish Book of Remembrance. The Mass stipend is $10.

All of these stipends will be used for Masses for the "Poor Souls" throughout November and the following months. As the Book of Maccabees tells us: "it is a good and holy thing to pray for the dead."

Our beloved are always with us through the Communion of the Saints. As we pray for them, may they in turn pray for us!

Not too early to again remind everyone of the upcoming Holy Day of Obligation of All Saints on November 1st! Masses will be offered at 7:00 p.m. on All Hallows' Eve, October 31st and Noon on November 1st. .Mass for ALL SOULS' DAY, November 2nd, will be at 5:30 p.m. with Adoration following until 9:00 p.m. See you all here on those special days!

God's blessings to you all!

Father Michael Leticia

Elementary and adult religious education resumes next week, October 29!

Start working on your saint costume for this year's All Saints Day party! You could use it for trick-or-treating as well - you will undoubtedly be very unique out on the porches of town! Games, contests, treats, fun, come celebrate the saints with us on Sunday, October 29th!

Put some principles of Catholic Social Teaching into practice at Nazareth Farm next year - find out more about the Church's teaching and the farm on the bulletin board at the top of the stairs. This is an opportunity to put on the "wedding garment" of love for God and neighbor. What you do or do not do for the least of these... Talk to Matthew about being part of our group.

God is ready to forgive and restore your friendship! You can celebrate the sacrament of reconciliation at our Parish Penance Service on Wednesday, December 6, or any Saturday afternoon! Parents, please look for an appropriate examination of conscience on the bulletin boards, or in your email.

Can you start an internet video? Put your expertise to the service of the Adult RE program! We wish to add a showing of the excellent weekly "Mass Readings Explained" videos on Sundays. Talk to Matthew if you wish to be of help. Next June we will need help with our Vacation Bible School, as well.
