1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

On behalf of the parish of St. Mary and the Archdiocesan family, I THANK YOU for your generous support and involvement in the 2017 CHRIST OUR HOPE- UNITED CATHOLIC APPEAL this weekend! Intention cards will remain in the pews next weekend for those who could not participate in this weekend's Intention Sunday. Again, THANK-YOU for your fine stewardship of your Time, Talent & Treasure shown to our parish of St. Mary!

Today's readings offer us words of consolation and words of warning. (Funny how they often do that, isn't it?) The first reading draws our attention to the person of Holy Wisdom, whose presence can free us from the worries and anxieties of this passing world. Not by magic but by faith are we to live. St. Paul's beautiful words to the Church in Thessalonica are a comfort for those who recently lost a loved one. In this month of November in which we especially remember and pray for our deceased loved ones, his words strike a deep cord within our hearts.

As Ordinary Time begins to wind down, we start to hear about the "end times." We are warned to "stay awake," to be prepared for the coming of the Lord. These scriptural words of warning, which always resound at the end of the Church year, remind us we are to live our lives in preparation for the life that is to come. This time of November always speaks of endings as well as new beginnings. It's a time to pray for what has passed, in the person of our loved ones. It is also a time to prepare, once more, to celebrate a new beginning of graced opportunity in the coming season of Advent and to mark once more, the coming of Jesus Christ!

The responsorial psalm said it all today: "My soul is thirsting for You, O Lord my God." Let's make that our prayer as we journey through these days of November and prepare our hearts during the coming Advent season to welcome the Lord once more!

As a nation, we continue to find ourselves at war. This weekend, the nation celebrates Veterans' Day! It's a great day to thank our veterans for their service to our country and the perfect day to offer Mass for the vets, their intentions and for those who lost their lives in service to our freedoms. Having a Dad who served as a B-17 pilot during WW II, and of course celebrating a special birthday that day, Veterans' Day has always been a very special day for me. Of course, back in the good ole days, going to a Catholic school, we never had school on Veterans' Day either! We join together in prayer to mark this very special occasion!

And, remember to thank a vet!!

Father Michael Lutack

God is ready to forgive and restore your friendship! You can celebrate the sacrament of reconciliation at our Parish Penance Service on Wednesday, December 6, or any Saturday afternoon! Parents, please look for an appropriate examination of conscience on the bulletin boards, or in your email.

A dozen young disciples are preparing to participate in the sacraments of reconciliation and Eucharist! Please pray for them often to understand these sources of God's grace for their lives, and to gain an appreciation that will lead them to love Jesus and convert their lives to his example and teaching.

There will be no religious education classes on Sunday, 11/25, or Monday 11/26.

Thanksgiving at the parish! If you are in town for the holiday, spend just a little of it with your parish family - come to the lower level to share some of your dessert, bring your favorite board game, help with a service project, or sit on a couch and talk. We'll be thankful to see you from 5:00 - 6:00 p.m.

K of C Breakfast Adds a New Menu Item

The Knights of Columbus invite you to the last breakfast of the year on Sunday, November 19, from 9 a.m. to noon. It will be a 'free will' offering breakfast with eggs, pancakes, hash-brown taters, biscuits and gravy, bacon, sausage, fruit and drinks. We are adding add a little south of the border flavor with a make your own breakfast burrito station with sausage, eggs, onions, and peppers. We hope to see you there.

Warm Clothing Needed

FRIENDS OF SAINT ANTHONY will be collecting the following items during the month of November: sweat pants, jeans, pants, coats, boots, socks, underwear, hats, and gloves. The Veterans Day Collection is for the veterans who come to Eskanazi Emergency Hospital in Indianapolis. There is a great need for these items so when they are sent home they will have clean clothing to wear. These items can be gently used, new, or gift cards that will be used to purchase the items most needed. Place your donations in the wicker basket by the Veteran's red/white/blue tree. Thank you for giving and God Bless America and all of our Veterans!
