"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

The readings for the entire liturgical year of 2017 led us to today's celebration of the Solemnity of Christ the King and today's Gospel from St. Matthew.

On this final Sunday before the holy time of Advent begins, the Lord Jesus tells us just how our activity will be judged when we finally "meet our Maker" face to face. The text is nothing short of chilling, for there is no escaping its central questions.

We are each asked to examine how we have or have not fed the hungry, given or not given drink to the thirsty, welcomed or shunned the stranger, clothed or ignored the naked, and visited or turned away from the imprisoned.

The Holy Spirit is our strength and our guide as we are formed into disciples. At the close of this liturgical year, let us turn to the Holy Spirit, seeking His help to respond to what our Lord Jesus commands of us in today's Gospel!

Of course, it goes without saying that one can interpret our Lord's commands in a spiritual sense, also. When it comes to spirituality and knowledge of Christ Jesus, His Church and most especially His Presence in the Holy Eucharist, there are many "hungry, thirsty, naked and imprisoned" people. Perhaps even more so, aiding in another's eternal salvation is of utmost charity and kindness.

Let us think back to one year ago, November 26, 2016. In what ways in the past year have I fed the hungry, given drink to the thirsty, welcomed the stranger, clothed the naked, and visited the imprisoned?

As of today's bulletin, our parish stands at $8,995 in this year's United Catholic Appeal. If you have not completed your pledge card, please do so by the end of the month. Again, THANK YOU FOR YOUR COMMITMENT AND GENEROSITY TO OUR PARISH AND ARCHDIOCESE!

Father Michael Antard

A dozen young disciples are preparing to participate in the sacraments of reconciliation and Eucharist! Please pray for them often to understand these sources of God's grace for their lives, and to gain an appreciation that will lead them to love Jesus and convert their lives to his example and teaching.

There are no religious education classes this weekend, or on Monday evening. Classes will resume for the next two weekends, and then break for Christmas. We will resume on January 7th.

There are guides for Examinations of Conscience for children and teens on the bulletin board at the top of the stairs; your child(ren) can use them to prepare for our Advent Penance Service on December 6, at 7:00 p.m. Begin your re-focus on God by seeking his forgiveness, and a fresh start!

The elementary religious education classes will be making fleece blankets for the homeless this winter as a class-time service project. The materials will cost $150, and we are seeking donations to help us purchase them. Please look for the donations box in the narthex and give just a little bit in thanksgiving for your comforts this Advent. If every parish family were to give $1 we would gather enough to make twice the number of blankets!

Youth Christmas Activities

On Sunday, December 10, from 11:45 - 3:00, we are having our Youth Group Annual Giving/Christmas Party for both Middle School and High School. We will be making care packages for the Puerto Rico Hurricane Relief. We will also have a Taco Bar and different kinds of desserts. We will be watching a movie from 3:00-5:00 and, if interested, we will be going to Christmas at the Zoo at 5:00 and return at 9:00. You are welcome to come to any of the times given, just please let Beth Dieckmann know.

If you would be interested in donating items to the Puerto Rico Hurricane Relief, a few items they are looking for are: C Cell Everyday Alkaline Batteries, Earth's Best Organic State 2, Vegetable Blends Variety Pack, Band-Aid Brand Adhesive Bandages Variety Pack, First-Aid Only All-Purpose First Aid Essentials Kits, Bumble Bee Premium Light Tuna in Water, 2.5 ounce pack, Neosporin First Aid Antibiotic Ointment. For more items, you can look up Amazon Wish list for Puerto Rico Hurricane Maria Relief.
