31st SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Therefore, do and observe all things whatsoever they tell you, but do not follow their example. For they preach but they do not practice." - Mt 23:3

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Mission Statement

We, the people of Mary, Queen of Peace, are called to be a Catholic faith community centered around prayer and worship and embodying Gospel values. We are a family of Christians committed to growth in faith and holiness as signs of God's presence in the world. We act in imitation of Christ, by reaching beyond ourselves in service to others.

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

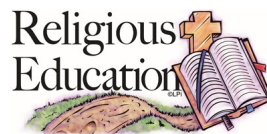

As this Year of Grace, 2017, nears its completion with the great Solemnity of Christ The King in just a few short weeks, once more our readings at Mass zero in on true humility and gratitude; both of which you've heard me say more than once, are pretty good definitions of one another. Jesus promises us today: "Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted." In a nutshell, which one shall we choose? The question beautifully dovetails into the great Feasts we celebrated just a few days ago: ALL SAINTS AND ALL SOULS.

As you heard me mention at Masses last weekend, through the generosity of a parishioner who wishes to remain anonymous, we will be taking up a second collection at all the weekend Masses this week. All monies collected will go directly into our operating budget. Our anonymous fellow parishioner will match dollar for dollar ALL MONIES COLLECTED in this second collection! I am so deeply humbled in the face of such generosity to our parish by a parishioner who noticed that our collections are down from where they need to be at this point in our fiscal budget. Therefore, I was contacted and given this tremendous news of generosity! What a beautiful example of stewardship of treasure to our parish! For all who contribute to this special second collection, I offer a sincere and heartfelt THANK-YOU! We will certainly make known the total amount in the weeks to come after all is counted. Again, DANKE!!

I try to watch the budget very closely but as you all know, at times things can be tight. St. Mary is a wonderfully generous parish! We have gained from our ancestors in the faith as well as from the Archdiocese. Now, it is up to us to continue their fine, Catholic example of generosity and gratitude! Remember, also, next weekend is the commitment time for this year's UNITED CATHOLIC APPEAL throughout the Archdiocese. Our goal this year is $29,499. Each parish has benefited in some fashion over the years from the Annual Appeal, our parish did when building our current church.

May God continue to bless you and our parish!

Father Michael Antard

Put some principles of Catholic Social Teaching into practice at Nazareth Farm next year - find out more about the Church's teaching and the farm on the bulletin board at the top of the stairs. This is an opportunity to put on the "wedding garment" of love for God and neighbor. What you do or do not do for the least of these... Talk to Matthew about being part of our group.

God is ready to forgive and restore your friendship! You can celebrate the sacrament of reconciliation at our Parish Penance Service on Wednesday, December 6, or any Saturday afternoon! Parents, please look for an appropriate examination of conscience on the bulletin boards, or in your email.

Are you looking for a way to be involved? The Religious Education Department is looking for you! Right now we are looking for volunteers to describe their experience of the sacrament of penance and reconciliation to our Sunday classes: you don't need to teach theology, just tell the students why and how your participation is meaningful to you personally, maybe answer a few of their questions. We need less than 5 minutes of your time on November 19 or December 3.

We will also have need of folks to show a video from a computer on Sundays between or after Masses (starting in Advent), and to help with our Vacation Bible School week next June. Call Matthew Fallon in the office to discuss these options to cooperate with the Holy Spirit!

Have you ever thought about helping form the faith/knowledge of our younger disciples but you are uncertain you could do really do it? Talk with Matthew Fallon in the office to schedule a class visit to see what is involved first-hand! We can also get you started with training materials, at your pace, so you will be ready to hit the ground running.

Donations for Veterans

FRIENDS OF SAINT

ANTHONY will be collecting the following items during the month of November: sweat pants, jeans, pants, coats, boots, socks, underwear, hats, and gloves. The Veterans Day Collection is for the veterans who come to Eskenazi Emergency Hospital in Indianapolis. There is a great need for these items so when they are sent home they will have clean clothing to wear. These items can be gently used, new, or gift cards that will be used to purchase the items most needed. Place your donations in the wicker basket by the Veteran's red/white/blue tree. Thank you for giving and God Bless America and all of our Veterans!

Happy Birthday

Fr. Mike
Many Blessings!

A Special Presentation

Join us on Tuesday, November 14, at 7:00 p.m. when two of our parishioners will give a presentation on their trip to the Holy Land. Ketty Brown and Kathy Stamper will present photos and discuss their trip. Come join us as we learn about our faith. If you have questions, call Anita at 317-745-6493.
