"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

In today's first reading we hear the story of the people of Nineveh, who repented of their sinful ways, and offer a shining example of our Father's divine mercy and forgiveness.

Our Lord Jesus calls us to repent and believe in the Gospel. It is noteworthy that our Lord's call to follow Him is issued within the context of repentance. Sometimes, we don't make the connection in our own lives. Following Jesus entails conversion and repentance; it must always do so in order to be authentic and graced.

When we forget this connection, we are actually attempting to follow Jesus on our terms, not His. It's as if we say to the Lord, "I will follow You, Lord, BUT allow me to bring this old habit, sin or attitude along with me."

Well, sooner or later we learn that we can't have it OUR way. We need to always remember, we are members of the ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH. Therefore, there are many aspects of our faith life that are simply bigger than we are! We are not St. Mary, Queen of Peace Catholic Church alone....we belong to the Church Universal as well as the Archdiocese of Indianapolis. We are not a community that can "pick and choose" what we believe or profess or do.

Our freedom and unity are ours precisely because we belong to the Church! Sometimes it takes a bit of hardship or "skinned knees" for us to learn this but, God willing, we do learn! How good and gracious is our Father!

On a very cheery note... Spring is less than two months away! That should lift our spirits! From my maternal grandmother, I have inherited a dislike for January and February! She was all about flowers, gardening, etc. While I am not into that like her, I share her innate weariness as the dark days move slowly along. I can tell things are lightening up but still, God help us! "Sic transit Gloria mundi!" Thus passes the glory of the world.

Like St. James tells us: "...stay warm and well-fed!"

Father Michael Litzel

The Level 2 class has begun its preparations for receiving the Holy Eucharist. Please pray for them to grow in understanding, love, and grace, especially those who have the individual student prayer cards!

We will be showing "The Weekly Mass Readings Explained" videos 10 minutes after 10:30 Masses, over in the RE building, first classroom on the left. Videos are only half an hour in length and explain the images, sayings and teachings in the readings as Jesus' first-century Jewish audience would understand them. All are welcome! Due to a generous donation there is no charge to attend these showings.

The Level 3 class will have an opportunity to participate in the sacrament of reconciliation during class on January 21. Please encourage your child to take part and help them prepare as necessary.

Should there be inclement weather that necessitates cancelling religious education classes you will receive notification by email, not the TV.

The elementary religious education classes will hold their fleece blanket service project on Sunday, February 4th. Please make sure to bring your child (ren) to help us get them all completed!

Photographers Needed

We are looking for people willing to take photos at various parish events. You do not have to be a professional. We just need people who will take photos whether on a cell phone or camera. If you would be willing to help out with this endeavor, please contact Mary O'Brien at tjmobrien@sbcglobal.net
