"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

"I shall not see happiness again." With these mournful words, Job concludes his lament to the Lord. Job was obviously in the depths of despair. His words are echoed in our own lives at times, are they not?

Jesus has something else in mind for us. The story in St. Mark's Gospel of the curing of St. Peter's mother-in-law shows us that the Lord wants to lift us up out of despair when it buffets us! To put it in other words, when life seems tough and almost unbearable, Christ stands beside us, offering courage and strength.

The Gospel is good news for us! If today is one of those days or times when we are feeling particularly burdened by illness, disappointment or despair, let us, like the townsfolk in today's Gospel story, bring our cares and gather them at the Lord's altar. The healing of Jesus continues in His holy Church. Now, it is our turn. When we humble ourselves to make a good, heartfelt confession with the firm desire of amendment, we are healed. When we come to receive Jesus in the Holy Eucharist; we are healed. But, we dare not end there. Certainly each one of us knows someone who is waiting for the healing touch of Jesus. Perhaps He looks to US to extend His healing touch. With hope, let us be attentive to the healing power of our Eucharistic Lord!

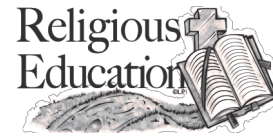

Please note the word in today's bulletin concerning your blessed palms from last year. Again this year, we will collect the palms in the basket in the narthex beginning this weekend, February 3-4 and continuing the following weekend, February 10-11. These will be burned to make the ashes for Ash Wednesday, February 14. Please do not bring palms later than February 11!

God bless you all and have a great week!

Father Michael Litzard

Forever Young

Grab your sweetie and come to our Valentine Luncheon, on Tuesday, February 13. Mass is at 11:30 a.m. with the luncheon immediately following. Judy is planning on Honey Baked ham, sweet potato casserole, and deviled eggs. Bring your favorite side dish and join us for fellowship and fun. Anyone 55 or older qualifies for our Forever Young Group. Hope to see many of you there!

We will be showing "The Weekly Mass Readings Explained" videos 10 minutes after 10:30 Masses, over in the RE building, first classroom on the right. Videos are only half an hour in length and explain the images, sayings and teachings in the readings as Jesus' first-century Jewish audience would understand them. All are welcome! Due to a generous donation there is no charge to attend these showings.

The elementary RE classes, Level 2-7, are making fleece blankets for the homeless this week. Thank you to everyone who has helped to make this project possible!

Our Lady of Fatima Retreat Center (5353 East 56th St. in Indianapolis) will be hosting two upcoming events of interest:

February 18 - Return to the Shack, view and discuss the film.

March 16-18 - Lenten Weekend Retreat (Friday evening through Sunday at 1:00 p.m.) with Fr. Jim Farrell.

Find information on these events and more at: archindy.org/fatima/calendar/full.html

It is a few months before we are ready for Vacation Bible School in June, but we are starting to look for volunteers to help with our fun, unique religious education experience. Is God calling you to serve our parish children in this way? Please talk with Matthew Fallon in the office to discuss your offer of help, thank you.

On March 11 the Level 7 class will recreate the Stations of the Cross devotional prayer. We will be on the east edge of the parking lot, or in the basement, depending on the weather. All are welcome to join the RE classes at 9:15 a.m. for this communal prayer.
