Prayer Line

If you know of someone who needs the special healing power of prayer, or to become a part of this ministry, call Fran Strauss at 317-745-5640.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

"I came that you may have life and have it more abundantly." With these words, proclaimed in today's Gospel, the risen Lord summons us to ponder anew the mystery of sharing in His resurrected life.

To embrace this mystery is to embrace a life filled with both abundance and challenge. Far too many people think that following Jesus should mean that their lives run smoothly all the time, they have no anxieties or worries; basically that everything is warm and fuzzy, sunshine and rainbows. Well, Easter surprise....it isn't!

The only way to the kind of abundance Jesus speaks of is through the gateway He has shown us...His total giving of Self for us. You know what that means..."So I have done, you must do also."

As we continue to celebrate the glory that is Easter, let us ask the Lord today for the grace and strength to ponder His promise with renewed faith. Remember, two weeks ago we celebrated Divine Mercy Sunday. The awesome words Jesus gave to St. Faustina need to remain in our hearts and lips always: "Jesus, I Trust In You!"

The Good Shepherd sometimes needs to knock the sheep in the rump with his staff in order to get them to go where they need to go and hear what they need to hear! That's kind of the stuff we don't want to think about, isn't it? But, it's true!

A wonderful witness to all of the above is one our parish celebrated one week ago at the 10:30 a.m. Mass. When we saw our children making their First Holy Communion, it should have rekindled within us that Eucharistic flame of faith and trust that we profess. When we witnessed their innocence and wonder at receiving Jesus for the first time, it should have made us pray for that same innocence of faith; that same innocence and trust to follow the lead of our Good Shepherd. It served as an occasion of renewal and rededication not only to the Holy Mass and the Sacred Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, but also to learning more about our Catholic faith, our traditions, devotions and truths!

Another wonderful witness will come on Thursday, May 17. Our candidates for Confirmation will receive the Sacrament from Archbishop Thompson at the Cathedral. We pray for our Confirmandi: Amy Earl, Nina Fallon, Brett Grundman, Lucy Kult, Andrew Lombardo, Sam Origer, Audrey Petree, Kaitlyn Schack, Morgan Schabel, Clare Wigger, and Sebastian Whetstone.

May Jesus, our Good Shepherd; our Eucharistic Jesus, always smile upon us all!

Father Michael Satard

Level 2 parents - please remember that the class will be helping with the May Crowning of Mary on May 13 at the 10:30 Mass.

We are looking for a few more witnesses to visit our elementary RE classrooms for 3-5 minutes on May 6, and share with the kids who Jesus is to you, and how he impacts your life or how you relate with him. Contact Matthew if you can help make Jesus alive and personal to our younger disciples.

Vacation Bible School is scheduled for June 18-22. But we will need help to make it happen. Contact Matthew if you can help with music, crafts, Bible lesson, etc. All the plans are pre-prepared and ready for you!

Parents: a new day-time schedule has been proposed this year- please weigh in with your preference. Registration will be available in May.

We will also need some additional catechists (teachers of the faith) to help guide our RE students next year. We have some instructional/preparation materials to review to help you get ready. Give Matthew a buzz to explore the possibility...

Adult RE: Our Archbishop recently penned an Apostolic Letter to his flock. Copies will be available at the top of the stairs, we will meet for a discussion of his message on Wednesday, May 23, at 7:30 p.m. This summer we'll meet to talk about Pope Francis' new Exhortation, "Gaudete et Exultate".

The "Weekly Mass Readings Explained" videos give insight into how the original audience of the Holy Scriptures would understand them, and how we too can understand them today. The videos are about 30 minutes long and can be viewed here at church at 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday mornings, and shortly after the 10:30 Mass on Sundays.

Attention 'World's Best Dad': your travel cup has been found in the Religious Education building! Stop by and see Matthew to reclaim it.

The Middle School and High School Youth are helping raise money for our Growing in Grace Capital Campaign by having a cookie sale the weekend of April 28 and 29 at each Mass. If you are interested in helping donate cookies, please have them at the church basement by 3:00 on Saturday. If your teen is interested in helping make cookies, we will be in the basement from noon to five. If you have any questions, contact Beth Dieckmann.

On Saturday, May 19, there will be a Middle School and High School Lock-in. We will have a cook-out and play games, and maybe have a bonfire (depending on weather). This will start at 6:30 p.m. Middle School teens will go home around 10:00 p.m. High school teens will stay at the church and will leave around 11:00 Sunday morning. Please let Beth Dieckmann know if you are interested in coming.

Contact Beth at mqpyouthgroupbeth@yahoo.com or bdieckmann@mqpdanville.org or 317-709-6765.
