1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

This weekend, we wish all our Mothers a very HAPPY MOTHERS' DAY!! Let us ask God's love, protection and graces upon all our Moms, whether gone before us in faith or still among us!

It would be rather disheartening if we saw the glorious Solemnity we observe today, The Ascension of the Lord Jesus Christ, as merely the day on which the Lord left this world for good. As a matter of fact, we would be in some rather distinguished company if we did indeed do so... that of the Apostles! As they stood gazing into the sky into which our Lord had just ascended, they were disheartened. Jesus had become Incarnate; had become Man, in order that man kind might find salvation and eternal life. He had suffered an ignominious death by crucifixion. He had miraculously returned through the power of the Resurrection and endowed the Apostles with the powers of Holy Orders, to confect the Holy Eucharist, to forgive sins, to cure the sick and be evangelists of His truth and life. Now, it seems, He had left them. What were they to do? What are we to do?

I think it's easy to simply do what the Apostles initially did; stand and gaze into the sky. At times the world can seem pretty overwhelming. We don't know which way to turn; what path or decision to take. Quite often, if we care to admit it, these feelings arise because we're trying to "go it alone." We're trying to live our Catholic Faith forgetting the great promise Jesus made to the twelve and to each one of us!

His promise of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost and His promise to remain with His Holy Bride, the Church, for all time, is the promise the Apostles came to believe and it is the same for each one of us. Today, on Ascension, we celebrate our Lord's promise to both remain and return!

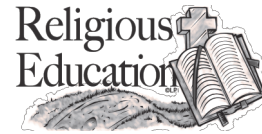

It is a celebration of great faith and a celebration of great promise and hope! It is truly a celebration of the True Church in the world, the vehicle of Sanctifying Grace and Guardian of all that Jesus taught and willed for His chosen people!

So, let us celebrate this great Solemnity with great faith! Remember, Jesus promised us His joy; that our joy might be complete. The coming of the Holy Spirit and the continued presence of Jesus in the Holy Mass and teaching Magisterium of the Church, is our joy! Laudate, Jesus Christus!

May our Risen and Ascended Lord Jesus Christ, continue to bless us all! AMEN!

Father Michael Suted

Registration for this summer's Vacation Bible School is open! Please see the display in the narthex or the bulletin board above the stairs for a form and information. This will be available for the rest of the month.

We also are still in need of a few more people to help lead the Vacation Bible School. Matthew will try to be in the narthex after the Masses as often as possible to answer questions about getting involved.

Next Sunday the Level 5 class will have the opportunity to receive the sacrament of reconciliation during religious education class. Parents, please help your children prepare to make a good confession. They have been given an aid for an examination of conscience and an Act of Contrition.

There will be only one more religious education class this season!! May 20th is the last elementary religious education class until August.

Adult Religious Education will meet to discuss our Archbishop's pastoral letter on Wednesday, May 23, at 7:30 p.m. A few more copies are available on the stairwell bulletin board.

In July we will meet to consider our Pope's recent apostolic exhortation "Gaudete et Exsultate."

We are currently in need of four more catechists for elementary religious education classes next year. We can begin preparing now to be ready to help form young disciples from our first class in August! Talk with Matthew to see what's going on.

On Saturday, May 19, there will be a Middle School and High School Lock-in. We will have a cook-out and play games, and maybe have a bonfire (depending on weather). This will start at 6:30 p.m. Middle School teens will go home around 10:00 p.m. High school teens will stay at the church and will leave around 11:00 Sunday morning. Please let Beth Dieckmann know if you are interested in coming.

Contact Beth at mqpyouthgroupbeth@yahoo.com or bdieckmann@mqpdanville.org or 317-709-6765.

Happy Mother's Day

In honor of all the mothers of the parish, we are passing out plants for summer enjoyment. They are Serenita Angelonia, also called "Summer Snapdragon", an annual that is easy to grow and blooms all summer until frost. The more sun it receives, the more flowers it will produce.

Angelonia can be planted in the ground or in containers, combined with other annual flowers. This variety stays compact at a little over a foot in height, but blooms profusely for a great color display. There is a care tag in each pot. Thank you, moms!

May, the Month of Mary

8:00 a.m. Gene Trapp
10:30 a.m. Kathy McSchooler

Please plan to come early and join your fellow parishioners in saying the rosary.

Thank you.
