"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Today's readings are ones of reassurance and hope. When we hear words such as "love" and "joy" used over and over again in a set of readings, it is a signal for us simply to thank God for the incredible gift given to this world in and through the Person of Jesus Christ.

Here, in His Eucharistic Heart, and only here, can we find the kind of hope and joy that will never desert us or run dry. Here, and only here, can we find the grace that can pull us out of even the deepest despair.

As one departs from Mass today, let us be filled with thanksgiving for the priceless Gift that comes to us through, with and in Christ Jesus!

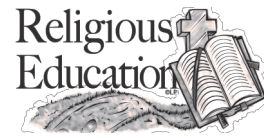

I will go out on a limb here and state that we may FINALLY be into the spring season! This year has been one of the strangest springs I can remember. No wonder so many have been sick with this or that. It goes to show we do not control the weather; God does!

Next Sunday is Mothers' Day! We will observe the day by having our traditional May Crowning of the Blessed Mother at the 10:30 Mass. The simple ceremony always brings back fond memories for me attending a Catholic grade school. The entire school would assemble and process from school into the church singing the Litany of the Blessed Mother. Later, during Adoration, an eighth grade girl would crown our church's statue of Mary while a little First Communion girl would carry the crown. Interestingly enough, my two aunts as well as my Mom all three had the honor of crowning the statue over their years at Annunciation School! Must be some record!

"Father, what about the Holy Day of the ASCENSION? Is it this Thursday or what?" Well, in answer to that question, remember that the bishops of the United States, with the exception of one or two dioceses, moved the celebration of the ASCENSION to the Seventh Sunday of Easter some years ago. This means that the annual celebration of the ASCENSION will be on that weekend from now on! So, if anyone asks you the question, now you know the answer!

Have a great week, everyone! God bless you all!

Father Michael Litzard

The Capital Campaign needs your generosity with your Treasure. You can give some of your Time and Talent to the Religious Education program!

We will need some new catechists next year for elementary religious education classes to help share the Catholic faith to our parish children.

We also need a few more people to help hold our Vacation Bible School June 18-22 from 9:00 a.m. to noon. We want to form our children to appreciate and practice our faith, and VBS is more about activity and engagement, so you don't need to be a master theologian! Please contact Matthew to join the team.

Registration for this summer's Vacation Bible School is open! Please pickup your form from the bulletin board at the top of the stairs, you may return it there as well. Registration is open during the month of May. VBS will be June 18-22, from 9:00 a.m. to noon.

The Level 5 class will have the opportunity to participate in the sacrament of reconciliation during class on May 20. Parents, please discuss the sacrament with your child and help prepare them to receive God's loving forgiveness. Examinations of conscience for children will be given to them in class to prepare at home.

The May 27th class has been cancelled due to the Memorial Day holiday. The final Religious Education class for spring 2018 will be May 20. See you at VBS, and then again in August!

Adult RE: Our Archbishop recently penned an Apostolic Letter to his flock. Copies will be available at the top of the stairs, we will meet for a discussion of his message on Wednesday, May 23, at 7:30 p.m.

This summer we'll meet to talk about Pope Francis' new Exhortation, "Gaudete et Exultate".

The Archdiocese's Bereavement Ministry will hold an End of Life: Moral Guidelines, Health Care Decisions, and Pastoral Care" conference at Fatima House on May 8. Find more information on the bulletin board at the top of the stairs.

The "Weekly Mass Readings Explained" videos give insight into how the original audience of the Holy Scriptures would understand them, and how we too can understand them today. The videos are about 30 minutes long and can be viewed here at church at 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday mornings, and shortly after the 10:30 Mass on Sundays.

Youth Activities

On Saturday, May 19, there will be a Middle School and High School Lock-in. We will have a cook-out and play games, and maybe have a bonfire (depending on weather). This will start at 6:30 p.m. Middle School teens will go home around 10:00 p.m. High school teens will stay at the church and will leave around 11:00 Sunday morning. Please let Beth Dieckmann know if you are interested in coming.

Contact Beth at mqpyouthgroupbeth@yahoo.com or bdieckmann@mqpdanville.org or 317-709-6765.
