The Archdiocese anticipates having about 25 seminarians in formation this fall. Thank you for your spiritual and financial support which provides the necessary education and formation of our priests. Please be generous in support of this collection and please continue to pray for vocations!

If you know of a man or woman you believe would serve well in priesthood or religious life, please call (317)236-1496 and leave the individual's name and contact information with the vocation director, Fr. Eric Augenstein.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

The first woman, Eve, stands before God making excuses for why she gave fruit from the forbidden tree to Adam: "The serpent tricked me into it." The Evil One predominates as well in the minds of the scribes assembled where Jesus speaks to the crowds in parables: "He is possessed by Beelzebub. By the prince of demons, He drives out demons."

The New Eve, Mary, by her very presence is a kind of parable. Moved by the obedience of the Mother of God, the Son of God proclaims: "Who is My Mother? Whoever does the will of God."

Such obedience effects the ultimate driving out of Satan. "The One who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus and place us with You in His Presence."...a place far better than the Garden of Eden!

I want to offer a brief update on our Capital Campaign. First and foremost, it has been successful! We together have pledged and raised almost $1.5 million dollars! The building committee is working with the architect now to determine just exactly what can be done. Part of the entire process involved "needs" and "wants." All of us want more space for sure. But, the religious education building must be tackled first. We are so close to replacing it, moving the offices and extending the narthex! We are also looking very closely at the lower level of the church and determining what can be done to increase space there, at least until the Parish Life Center can become a reality.

Once more, I come to you asking that if you have not made a pledge, please prayerfully consider doing so! The more parishioners that participate, the more the parish can accomplish! If you have pledged, please consider, prayerfully, if you can increase that pledge. Together, we will be even more successful! May it be so!

Now that we are into the month of June, let us enjoy the "lazy, crazy days of summer." How many remember that song? If you do, you are showing your age...like me! God's blessings upon our parish and families!

Father Michael Suter

Mary's greatness consists in the fact that she wants to magnify God, not herself.

Pope Benedict XVI

Due to a lack of sufficient participants, we will not hold a Vacation Bible School program this summer. Families that signed up will be reimbursed their fees. We will try again next summer.

We will need at least 5 new catechists to join the religious education staff this August. We can help get you prepared during this summer! Call or visit Matthew to find out more or to get started.

Religious education students: remember that faith is not just accepting and agreeing with Jesus. Faith also requires believers to change their lives to think like Christ, judge like him, and act like him. As you enjoy your summer keep in mind how you should act as Christ in your daily life.

Adult Learners:

Pope Francis recently released an apostolic exhortation, Gaudete et Exultate. Get a copy at the top of the stairs, and come to a group discussion of its themes on July, 25. The Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith also released a document concerning the human person and current economic and financial systems. Copies of this will also be available for reading and discussion.
