"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

It is very rare when the Church sets aside the celebration of the normal Sunday Liturgy in order to celebrate another Feast or Solemnity; in this case, the birthday of a Saint. However...

Today, the Church does just so. We gather to celebrate the Solemnity of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist. St. John the Baptist is such an important figure in the history of the Church, that his commemoration takes precedence over a Sunday celebration in Ordinary Time.

Today's Gospel tells the fascinating story of the birth and naming of St. John. Because he was to be the herald of the Lord Jesus, St. John the Baptist is an example for us. I know it sometimes sounds like a stretch, given the sins we commit and given the imperfections in daily living that we experience, but we, too, are called to announce the coming of the Lord Jesus in the moments of everyday life.

Perhaps as Catholics, we have it a bit easy. What do I mean by that? Well, we have the Holy Eucharist! We have the Sacramental life of the Church! We have the Magisterium (official teaching office) of the Church to teach, lead and guide us! Given these priceless Gifts, we have all the "tools" we need to share, lead and mentor others into the fullness of Jesus Christ and His Church!

Each one of us has been called by the late Pope St. John Paul the Great, as well as by Popes Benedict and Francis, to be evangelizers of the Faith. It's always gratifying each fall when we begin the RCIA program, to see life-long Catholics sponsoring inquirers on their own journey of faith into the Catholic Church. Not only is it gratifying, it is humbling. Wow! This is what being a Catholic evangelist is all about! Let's thank the Holy Trinity for this awesome privilege we have been given!

May the good Lord continue to bless us and keep us!

Father Michael Antkowiak

When we want to become good friends with someone we try to spend time with them often. You can spend time with Jesus by praying with him, by reading the Gospels, by helping his people.

Any parishioner who receives communion can help as an altar server at Mass with Father Mike. Think about joining the ranks of servers, and give Phil Schneider a call to learn more: 317-745- 5998. You will be happy. Father will be happy. Jesus will be happy that you did!

Registration for elementary religious education classes is beginning now! Find registration and information forms at the top of the stairs, where they may also be returned. Payment may be made directly to Matthew, in the offices, or placed in the collection plate. The class fee will remain the same, if your registration is received by July 29th. After this date there will be an added late fee of $15.

We have openings for new catechists in the Level 3, 5, 6, and 7 classes. We are also looking for someone (male or female) to help prepare students to receive the sacraments of initiation next Easter.

NEW: All catechists: the archdiocese is holding a day of spirituality, and training and reflection on our catechesis. Come along on September 18 for sharing, speakers, and spirituality to help bolster your work as catechists.

The Weekly Mass Readings Explained videos will be suspended until the week of July 9, as Matthew will be out of the state until that time.

Answers to last week's Saint trivia: Saint Fiacre is the patron saint of gardening, and Saint Isidore is the patron of farmers. Saint Thomas More is the patron of politicians...perhaps they could use a few more?

For this week, not trivia but a puzzler: you may know that the 10 commandments are grouped by our relationship with God (first three) and our relationship to other people (last seven), and that they are in order of importance (kids - honoring your parents comes before not killing people!) - but which commandment could be considered the most perilous commandment?

In July, our event is an Indians game on Friday, July 13. It is a fireworks night. We will be leaving about 5:30 p.m. from the church and heading to the game. We will eat at the game. This night will be $10 for the ticket and food. Let Beth know by Tuesday, July 10, if you can attend.

If you have any questions regarding youth group or Confirmation, please contact Beth Dieckmann at mqpyouthgroup-beth@yahoo.com or 317-709-6765.

I would like you to consider participating in our online giving designed to simplify weekly giving in our congregation.

Electronic giving will enable every household or individual to make their church offering using electronic funds transfer or credit card. You may already be using online bill pay for your mortgage, car payment, or insurance premium through an automatic withdrawal from your checking or savings account. Many of you also have used your credit cards to purchase goods online through Amazon, eBay, or a number of other sites.

We have teamed up with myEoffering to enable you to use the same process to give your offering electronically from your bank account, credit or debit cards.

If you are currently giving on a weekly basis, you will no longer need to write out 52 checks a year or prepare 52 envelopes. And when travel, illness or other circumstances prevent you from attending services, this program will allow your weekly offerings to continue uninterrupted.

You can participate in the electronic giving program immediately. Just visit our church website and look for the "Donate Now" button.

There is no cost to you for this new giving option. However, if you chose to donate the transaction fee it will save our parish from having to pay the fees.

Thank you for considering this new giving opportunity.
