Sent Forth by the Lord

- Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them. Mk 6:7, 13

MQP Softball Game Results

Last week we defeated Northview 2 with a score of 18-6. We kept our victories alive this week beating Grace 13-11. It was a close game and kept everyone on their toes. We were behind until the 6th inning. Bart Hensley had a great rolling catch and two home runs! A few nice catches in the outfield helped to keep them where they were and some nice hitting helped us gain the lead. Great team work and spirit all around! Join us to play or support MQP on Monday at 6:00 p.m. on the South Field.

*In Honor of our Blessed Mother

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

In today's Gospel, our Lord sends His Apostles out on a mission. This mission is one in which all of us who are baptized are called to participate on a daily basis.

While we may not all be called to drive out demons (although we may think we know a few) or anoint with oil and cure people, we are still called to share the truth of Jesus Christ.

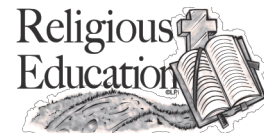

When you think about it, there really are a variety of ways one can "cure" another person. Sometimes all it takes is a smile and a nod of the head or an inquiry as to how the other person is feeling. Showing basic Christian kindness and respect goes a long way in offering someone the needed light they may need.

At times Catholics are a little hesitant about sharing the faith with another person. We don't want to come across as pushy or "judgmental." But, it is precisely in sharing the beauty and mystery of the Catholic faith that we follow the command of Jesus and go out and bring others to Him and to His Church. The days of Catholics being somehow timid or even seemingly ashamed of being Catholic are past! For those of us old enough to remember Confirmation in the "old days," we were taught by the sisters that we would now become "Soldiers of Christ." That image and truism always has stayed with me.

St. Paul tells us to proclaim Christ "in season and out of season." On the surface that seems sort of an odd thing to say doesn't it? He is actually telling us that there is no time in which we are not to proclaim with conviction and compassion, the invitation of Jesus to "Come, follow Me."

As you all go about your lives in the marketplaces of our world, remember, you take Christ with you! Your Catholic faith is a part of you, which all should know and see. Remember, little things mean a lot. You may never know what a word or gesture on your part did for another's journey of faith!

Have a prayer-full week!

Elementary RE:

When we hurt somebody it is necessary to apologize to restore our friendship, right? The same is true of our friendship with God - when we hurt our friendship by our sins, we need to say we are sorry and receive his restoring forgiveness. If any families want a guide for an examination of conscience for teens or children, contact Matthew in the RE office.

Registration packets for elementary religious education class 2018-19 are available now, at the top of the stairs. They may be returned there, delivered/mailed to the office, or added to the collection plate at Mass.

Catechists with children: Please take an envelope labeled for catechists to get your discounted price.

We still need four more people to share their faith to our kids as catechists. Our classes begin on August 19th! Right now we have a veteran returning in all our classes, so you would not be on your own.

Parents: Is your child older than third grade, but has not yet received some/any sacraments? The parish RE program will be offering special classes modeled on the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) to prepare them to receive the needed sacraments of initiation at the Easter vigil on April 20th. Talk with Matthew about joining the group.

Adult RE:

Habitat for Humanity is starting a building project this September in Clayton, and MQP is going to volunteer some physical labor (10-15 workers) one day this September or October! No prior experience or training is required. Add your name to the sheet on the bulletin board at the top of the stairs to indicate your interest.

In the meantime, you can meet the future homeowner at a breakfast to start the project. It will be held on the morning of July 20 at 7:30 a.m., at the Habitat Re-Store facility - 1099 North State Road 267.

There are two studies to be offered this year, beginning August 19th. We will start with a study of 'The Pivotal Players' - 6 people who were instrumental in different ways in building the Catholic Church. After Thanksgiving we will conclude 'The Great Adventure' series with a study on the Acts of the Apostles. Find more information on the RE bulletin board at the top of the stairs. Please sign up to indicate your interest so we may be prepared with materials.

Puzzler answer from July 1: There were 9+ people raised from the dead in the Bible: The widow of Zerapheth's son - 1Kings 17:17-24; The Shunammite woman's son - 2Kings 4:18-37; The man raised out of Elisha's grave - 2Kings 13:20-21; The widow of Nain's son - Luke 7:11-17; Jairus's daughter - Luke 8:52-56; Lazarus of Bethany - John 11; Tabitha, or Dorcus, of Joppa - Acts 9:36-43; Eutychus of Troas - Acts 20:7-12; Various saints in Jerusalem - Matthew 27:50-53; and, of course, our Savior Jesus - Mark 16:1-8

This week's puzzler: There are several things that Jesus urged us to do for right relationships with God and our neighbors - but what is the criterion that he describes will be used at our judgment?

Landscaping Cleanup

The recent rains have resulted in a bumper crop of weeds in the church and rectory landscaping! Mary's Garden looks like we're honoring "Mary, Queen of Weeds"! With volunteers next Saturday morning, July 21, at 8:00, we should be able to clean up the landscaping in just a few hours, or less. Meet up at the church with your gloves and let's get the gardens looking beautiful again. Many hands make light work!
