and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."*

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

For several weeks now we have been listening to Gospel stories that focus on our behavior and relationships as we follow Christ Jesus. This week, the first reading and Gospel remind us that Christian hospitality has always been a hallmark of the Church.

We are called to extend a welcome to those who come into our midst. Like the message from last weekend's parable of the Good Samaritan, this call to hospitality has challenging implications for us all. In welcoming the stranger or visitor, we not only imitate Jesus, we also have the potential of welcoming Christ Himself into our midst.

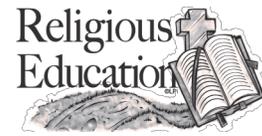

At times, hospitality is thought of as merely smiling at someone or saying "hello." While that is sometimes true, it goes much deeper for those of us who call ourselves Catholic. How so?

As a priest, I can't tell you the number of times people have shared with me that one big reason they converted to the Church was because they were invited to Mass or invited to pray about the Faith by a member of the parish or Catholic friend. That is the truest form of hospitality that we can offer! What could compare with welcoming someone into the Church established by Our Lord Jesus? Being there for someone who is inquiring about the Church, about the Holy Eucharist, about those "things" we Catholics "do"; that's being hospitable! And, that's the "new evangelization" that we are called to live. May the Lord give us the will and joy to do so!

Is not July wonderful? Sure, it may be a bit hot and humid at times but isn't it nice to enjoy the things summer brings us? I still love my snow but I have to admit, I like being able to be outside on my porch or riding my bike! Sort of hard to do those things with all the snow and cold we had last season. Man, we didn't think it would ever be over did we??

God's blessings upon us all!

Father Michael Letard

Elementary RE:

Hey, hey, hey - read Scripture every day! Make it a habit. "No Bible, no breakfast; no Bible, no bed."

Register now for elementary religious education classes! Packets are available at the top of the stairs. Don't wait until after July 29th, or you will be assessed a $15 late fee.

Catechists get a price break on RE classes - please select your catechist-labeled packet to claim it!

Evangelization is part of our duty as Catholics!! But it isn't only a street-corner or door-to-door affair: You can spread the faith among our own parish children in our religious education classes. We are still in need of four more catechists to fill all of our classroom needs; speak with Matthew to ask questions or to volunteer.

Parents: Is your child older than third grade, but has not yet received some/any sacraments? The parish RE program will be offering special classes modeled on the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) to prepare them to receive the needed sacraments of initiation at the Easter vigil on April 20th. Talk with Matthew about joining the group.

Adult RE:

Habitat for Humanity is starting a building project this September in Clayton, and MQP is going to volunteer some physical labor (10-15 workers) one day this September or October! No prior experience or training is required. Add your name to the sheet on the bulletin board at the top of the stairs to indicate your interest. Volunteers must be at least 16 years old, and wear close-toed shoes.

There are two studies to be offered this year, beginning August 19th. We will start with a study of 'The Pivotal Players' - 6 people who were instrumental in different ways in building the Catholic Church. After Thanksgiving we will conclude 'The Great Adventure' series with a study on the Acts of the Apostles. Find more information on the RE bulletin board at the top of the stairs. Please sign up to indicate your interest so we may be prepared with materials.

Recently confirmed Catholics: Continue building your faith and understanding of the Church with one or both of these adult studies. You are eligible and invited!

Last Week's Puzzler answer: When the Son of Man sits on his glorious throne and separates the nations like sheep and goats, he will judge by whether we saw the least of our brothers and gave food to the hungry, drink to the thirsty, clothes to the naked, care to the ill, companionship to the prisoner. (Matthew 25:31-46)

This week's puzzler: Can you name 7 women (named/unnamed) in the Bible who had difficulty with fertility, but were significantly granted with children by God?

The one who has hope lives differently;
the one who hopes has been granted the gift of a new life.
Pope Benedict XVI

We won again! We defeated Methodist 23-7. There were two impressive catches by our pitcher, Matthew Fallon. If we were in a home run derby, Bart Hensley would be king. Our next game is on Monday, July 23 at 6:00 p.m. We will play against Northview 1 on the South Field. Come and join the fun!!!!
