"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Last Sunday we listened to the Gospel account of how Jesus was moved with pity for the people who were "like sheep without a shepherd." In today's Gospel, the Lord again looks upon the enormous crowd that had followed Him and performs the miracle of the loaves and fishes.

"Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?" This question, posed by the Lord Jesus to Philip, signaled the beginning of the miracle. In recent times we have witnessed tremendous devastation in various places throughout the world due to natural disasters. It sometimes leaves us asking the same sort of question posed by Our Lord today. What can I possibly do in the face of such tragedy and want?

The Gospel serves to remind us all that when even our small or meager efforts at helping another are multiplied, a miracle of comfort and healing is the result. Rather than doing nothing because we assume, wrongly, in the face of huge want that our gift or sharing is to no avail, Jesus calls us to do it anyway! This is one of the ways we are called, through the power of the Holy Eucharist, to become more and more like Christ, Who fed thousands with what seemed to be so insignificant!

How truly blessed we are this summer! How so? Well, again in this year of "Cycle B" readings, we hear of the tremendous Gift of the Most Holy Eucharist. It is good for us to hear of this most Precious Gift at this time in our nation's history. My friends, we are in a battle if we truly live our Catholic faith. When one listens to a person truly "fired up" about being Catholic, it cannot but re-ignite our own fire. When one meets a fellow Catholic who has a deep love and respect for the Blessed Sacrament, the Holy Mass and the priesthood, one cannot help but be changed. When we who are priests are reminded that we are here to preach the truth of Christ again and again, even when some don't want to hear it or it's hard to hear, one cannot help but become stronger in his or her Catholic Faith!

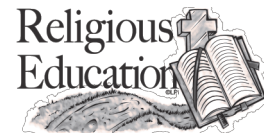

What a Gift! What a Treasure! Remember the words of St. John Vianney: "When you come before the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, open your hearts; He will open His!"

Next weekend, we will welcome my classmate and good friend, Monsignor Bill Stumpf, to St. Mary's. I will be with another good priest friend, Fr. Jim Koressel of the Evansville Diocese. He has asked me to look over possible retirement options and places for when he officially retires next July. Who knows where we will end up!

Our Capital Campaign continues to go well! Pledged monies are continuing to come in. Anna will post updates from time to time in the bulletin. Again, to ALL of you who have pledged in our Campaign, a BIG thank-you! Together, we will succeed!

God bless one and all and have a good week!

Father Michael Litzard

Elementary RE:

We are called to love and serve the Lord. But how do we do that in our daily actions? By loving and serving our neighbors!

We have had some people step forward to serve as catechists this year. Thank you Pat Baldwin and Ivy Daley! We are still in need of a few more people for the elementary RE classes, and for the fall adult RE class.

Sometimes life gets in the way of the typical timeline at which children receive their sacraments of initiation (baptism, communion, confirmation). If you are interested in having your child(ren) join the Church and receive these sacraments, speak with Matthew about preparation classes.

Adult RE:

Find out about our adult RE classes this year on the stairwell bulletin board. Classes begin in mid-August so sign up now to make sure we can have study guides arrive in time. We are going to need a leader for the Sunday morning class section of the fall class, The Pivotal Players. Please talk with Matthew about what is involved and to examine the material.

Sign up to volunteer on our Habitat for Humanity work day, coming this September/October (TBD). Add your name on the stairwell bulletin board.

TEENS:

Join a different type of study. The Pivotal Players examines the ways six important figures helped build up or revitalize the Church. What was their spiritual strength - maybe it could become your own? Which will you relate to best, or find most influential? The sign-up sheet is on the stairwell bulletin board.

Are you looking for some spiritual or Catholic reading material? Our parish collection of books is available in the RE building! Saints, spirituality, history, liturgy, and more topics may be borrowed to read at your home - speak to Matthew to make sure the doors are open for you.

Last week's puzzler: God used several miraculous births to previously "barren" women in his plan of salvation:

1. Sarah gave birth to Isaac at 99 (Gen. 21:1)
2. Rebekah gave birth to Jacob and Esau (Gen. 25:24)
3. Rachel gave birth to Joseph (Gen.30:22) then Benjamin
4. Manoah's wife (unnamed) gave birth to Samson (Jud. 13:2)
5. Hannah gave birth to the prophet Samuel (1 Sam. 1:15)
6. An unnamed Shunammite woman gave birth to a son after the prophecy of Elisha (2 Ki 4:16-17)
7. Elizabeth gave birth to John the Baptist (Luke 1:57-58)

Jesus' birth to Mary was certainly miraculous, but she was a young virgin, not "barren".

This week's puzzler: How many times, and when, did God part waters?

MQP Softball Game Results

Tonight's game was a wet one. We had a humbling game with a loss to NorthView 1, 13-26. Andrew Wray had a nice catch in the outfield. Ryan Byrd had a stellar catch as pitcher and hit an over the fence home run. We won't let this get us down. We look forward to our next game on Monday, July 30, at 6:00 p.m. against Calvary! Come cheer us on or bring a glove to play!
