"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Let's take a look at the readings for this weekend's Mass. They offer us an ironic twist on this past Independence Day.

The people of Jesus' "native place" had begun to measure Him based on their own inadequate preconceptions and presuppositions. In other words, even before Jesus spoke or acted, some had already closed their minds and hearts to His word and presence....not totally unlike our own day, right?

Because they were filled with contempt right off the bat, they ruled out even the remote possibility of experiencing the "mighty deeds of the Lord." How much better are those who, like St. Paul, approach the Lord from the perspective of the "thorn" in their flesh, even taking comfort in their weakness. For "power is made perfect in weakness."

This brings me to a point in an article written by Fr. Peter John Cameron, OP. Father wrote: "What God desires is our trust, our dependence, our reliance, our certainty, our surrender. God loves to be acknowledged by nothingness. In the nothingness that we offer to God, the Everything He gives appears ever more glorious. Our greatness and freedom derive from this dependence."

All of this shows our fundamental human desire to give God something. Sacrifice consists in our becoming totally receptive toward God and in letting ourselves be completely taken over by Him. The point of the bread and wine that are presented at each Mass is not for them to remain bread and wine but for them rather to become the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ. "We hope that what we offer will be completely taken over by God...will be filled with His Presence. Our gifts symbolize ourselves."

As Catholics and as Christians, we gather this weekend, indeed at each offering of the Holy Mass, to celebrate our total dependence upon Jesus Christ and His Gift of the Holy Eucharist!

Let us go forth from this Mass with a renewed vision that true freedom is only possible within the arms of total dependence on Jesus Christ and His Bride, the Church! For it is "through Him, with Him and in Him" that we live and move and have our being. Now that is cause for rejoicing!

Just a little "heads up"....I will be away this coming week with Monsignor Bill Stumpf. Next weekend, I am happy to tell you that Father Andy Syberg, of Bishop Brute Seminary, will be with all of you to share about the ministry of the seminary, how many men are studying for the priesthood there, etc. You will enjoy Fr. Andy!

God bless you all!

Father Michael Suted

Elementary RE:

You can hear Jesus speaking in the Gospels. If you read only a chapter each day you will finish any of the four Gospels in less than a month. Then branch out to other books...

Registration packets for elementary religious education class 2018-19 are available now, at the top of the stairs. They may be returned there, delivered/mailed to the office, or added to the collection plate at Mass.

Help is needed to staff the religious education classes this coming August through May. Please consider helping us avoid curtailing or cancelling classes! Matthew will be back in the office on July 9th to discuss the positions.

Parents: Is your child older than third grade, but has not yet received some/any sacraments? The parish RE program will be offering special classes modeled on the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) to prepare them to receive the needed sacraments of initiation at the Easter vigil on April 20th. Talk with Matthew (after July 7) about joining the group.

Adult RE:

Habitat for Humanity is starting a building project this September in Clayton, and MQP is going to volunteer some physical labor (10-15 workers) one day this September or October! No prior experience or training is required. Keep checking here for more information.

In the meantime, you can meet the future homeowner at a breakfast to start the project. It will be held on the morning of July 20 at 7:30 a.m., at the Habitat Re-Store facility - 1099 North State Road 267.

All catechists: the archdiocese is holding a day of spirituality, and training and reflection on our catechesis. Come along on September 18 for sharing, speakers, and spirituality to help bolster your work as catechists.
