"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

In both the first reading as well as the Gospel today, we hear of people who recognized God's presence among them. The stark and eternal consequences of their choices must be reflected upon.

Joshua recalls God's protection during the time when the Israelites fled the yoke of their Egyptian masters. Because of this, Joshua swears, "As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord." Alas, others of his company did not make the same choice.

In the wonderful passage from St. John's Gospel, St. Peter recognizes Jesus as "the Holy One of God." Alas, others of his company did not.

Each time we gather to offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, we proclaim that we, too, recognize the very Presence of Jesus Christ in our lives and in our midst in the Holy Eucharist. This reverential recognition, coupled with our willingness to serve Christ, impels us to extend His Presence into our daily lives. Alas, at times we do not do this.

Any serious study and prayer of the Holy Scriptures includes the awareness that numbers play a very important role. Beginning with the days of creation to the days Noah spent in the ark, to the days the Jews wandered in the desert, the twelve tribes of Israel, the twelve Apostles, the seven Sacraments; all point out the sacred writers' awareness that God uses these to teach truth.

Therefore, one must conclude that it is no mere coincidence for St. John the Apostle's "Eucharistic Chapter," the sixth chapter, to include a rather ominous warning and statement of fact in the sixty-sixth verse: "As a result of this, many of His disciples returned to their former way of life and no longer accompanied Him." (JN. 6:66) Does that number sound in any way familiar to you?

It is the same series of numbers St. John would later use in the Book of Revelation to refer to "the Anti-Christ." He is making it quite clear that in his revelation, to reject the reality and truth of the Holy Eucharist, is to make one's self another "anti-Christ." One cannot claim allegiance to Jesus Christ and at the same time reject His own proclamation of the Holy Eucharist!

It is so important for us to realize that our Lord did not force anyone to accept this supreme teaching; this sublime reality. He allowed those who would not or could not believe, to leave Him. We need to remember the same thing today. No one can be forced to believe in the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist. At the same time, we need not apologize for the fact that we do! Nor should we feel constrained to not share this belief with others and ask that they respect our belief and His True Presence in the Tabernacles of our churches.

What a Gift! What a Treasure, is the Most Blessed Sacrament! As St. John Vianney wrote:

"What happiness do we not feel in the Presence of God, when we are at His Feet before the Sacred Tabernacle! Redouble your fervor; you are to adore your God; His Eyes rest upon you!"

Father Michael Sautter

Elementary RE:

It is not too late to enroll in classes. Come see Matthew for the needed forms and to pay the (late) class fee - but hurry! Parents of returning students: we still need you to fill out the registration form and pay the appropriate fees, including the late fee. This will allow us to be prepared for your child(ren) and keep our information current.

If you are in the Level 3 class or above you may serve God and the parish at the altar during Mass! Contact Mr. Phil Schneider (p_schneider@comcast.net) for information about serving. We especially want servers for the Saturday (5:00 p.m.) and Sunday (8:00 a.m.) Masses.

Parents:

Have you heard of the traditional children's catechism tool, The Baltimore Catechism? In the RE building there are examples of this learning resource which you may examine to see if it would be helpful for your faith education efforts at home. There is a version for younger and older students. Add your name to the list on the RE hallway bulletin board, and we will make a group purchase at the end of September.

How well can you complete the Catholic I.Q. quiz? Take the challenge in the RE hallway while waiting for your child (ren). Maybe your kids can help!

Teens:

Want to help with a younger RE class? Would you prefer to join a study and learn more about the Church and our faith? We've got your chance! Call Matthew about either road.

Adult RE:

Classes have started, but you can still catch up. $30 is due for the book when you receive it. Thank you!

General Interest:

We can still use a few more people to help build the Habitat for Humanity house being constructed in Clayton this fall. Sign up on the stairwell bulletin board to get word of the date as soon as we are scheduled. Service!

Indy St. Vincent DePaul Society is collecting used bicycles, helmets, locks, and backpacks during August. Visit www.svdpindy.org for information about donating.

Liturgical Ministers Schedule

Please watch your email this week for notification of the schedule for the next four months. Those scheduled to serve next weekend, September 1 and 2, will be on that schedule.

The Rite of Calling for the Confirmation class of 2018-19 is Sunday, September 9, at the 10:30 Mass. We will review what happens at this event during class. Please have your son or daughter dress in "church clothes" for this event.

Youth Group:

Our next youth event for both Middle School and High School will be going to the Children's Museum and Culver's on Sunday, September 16, after the 10:30 Mass. We will return around 4:00 p.m. We will meet in the Youth Room. The cost is $20.

Volunteer Opportunity

Shared Blessings Community Food Pantry, located at the Danville United Methodist Church on Mill Street, needs drivers to do pickups at the Meijer and Aldi stores in Avon.

Pickups are done on Mondays and Fridays between 8:30 a.m. and 11:00 a.m., and it only takes about two hours. Driver would need a larger vehicle (pickup truck, SUV or mini van works great). Pickups include produce, bakery items and meat for the food pantry.

If interested, please contact Diane DuMontelle at Danville UMC at info@danvilleumc.org.

Thank you for considering this volunteer opportunity.
