"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

It seems that, in the three year cycle of readings given us by the Church for Sunday Mass, we do not hear much from a powerful source. Today, we do so. St. James offers a reminder: "Humbly welcome the word that has been planted in you and is able to save your souls." He goes on to tell us to be "doers of the word and not hearers only." What does that mean?

Well, it means that we not only talk our Catholic faith, we try our best to live it. It means that "faith without works is dead." (Which, incidentally, is the major reason Martin Luther at first called James: "a bundle of straw" and wanted to drop it from the Canon of Scripture. He later gave the matter more thought and did not do so!) It means that when we come to Mass, we humbly open ourselves to be transformed by God's Word and Sacrament. It means that we attempt to have our attitudes and actions molded to those of Christ and His Church. You know, it's tough to hear. Sometimes it's hard enough even to pray, let alone do so in the mind of Christ. It doesn't mean we don't have faith. It means that at times, it's all a person can do to pray.

By extension, I think St. James would want us to know that we're in this together. Our faith supports and has compassion for one another. Just as others request our prayers, we, too, rely on theirs. That is certainly the message of the Gospel today also. No one does it perfectly. Nonetheless, we strive to do so. Let us pray for one another!

Hard to believe, but here we find ourselves at Labor Day weekend. Where does the time go? It's always been regarded as the last "hurrah" of summer, hasn't it? Well, in a way, it is. Kids are back in school, all the fall sports have begun and leaves are already beginning to change. I love fall...it's the darkness of coming winter I could do without! I guess the blessed thing to do is to enjoy the colors, the crispness of the air and God's handiwork!

Have a safe, enjoyable holiday on Monday. God bless!

Father Michael Fritsch

Annual Day of Remembrance

The 6th annual National Day of Remembrance for Abortion Children will be Saturday, September 8. Locally, this will be held at 2:00 p.m. at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Catholic Church, 14598 Oakridge Road, Carmel.

This national day of prayer and mourning is unlike any other pro-life event. It's not a protest or rally. It's not held at an abortion facility or government office.

On this special day, we visit the burial places of aborted children and other memorials put up in their honor, and we solemnly pray for God to heal the deep wounds of abortion in our society.

"Blessed are they who mourn," our Lord promised, "for they will be comforted."

Elementary RE:

Enjoy your Labor Day holiday! Say a prayer for the working people who do the work which makes the country run. We'll see you for class next week!

YOU CAN HELP PEOPLE GET TO HEAVEN - Any students who receive Holy Communion can help present the Mass and the eternal sacrifice of Christ by working at Father Fritsch's side as an altar server. We especially need server help at the 5:00 p.m. (Saturday) and 8:00 a.m. Masses. Contact Phil Schneider to begin accessing grace for our parish family. To see the outlook of current servers check out the hallway bulletin board in the RE building.

Parents:

Have you heard of the traditional children's catechism tool, The Baltimore Catechism? In the RE building there are examples of this learning resource which you may examine to see if it would be helpful for your faith education efforts at home. There is a version for younger and older students. Add your name to the list on the RE hallway bulletin board, and we will make a group purchase at the end of September.

There are weeks when we could use someone to help cover a class due to unplanned events. We will have a lesson plan ready for you to use. In the meantime, you can visit a class and see what our classes are like...

In a few weeks we will need help passing out prayer cards for each of the RE students to the parish. One or two people to be here at the start of each Mass would be a terrific help. Call Matthew to find out more and to solicit prayers for our young disciples.

General Interest:

Our volunteer day with Habitat for Humanity is set for Saturday, September 15th. You may still join our work crew by registering at this link:

hendrickscommunity.indyhabitat.volunteerhub.com

At the website you can see a description of the work that day, find other days you'd like to volunteer to help, and see a preparation video. Thank you for helping some of 'the least of these' earn a new home for their family.
