Catholic Relief Service News the charity arm of our Church

About 1.8 million people in El Salvador lack access to clean water. CRS and the Inter-American Developmental Bank's Multilateral Investment Fund launched Azure. It is a blended finance facility using public and private funds through common investment to improve water and sanitation services for under-served communities there.

This project, managed by CRS with local technical service providers, offers hydraulic engineering, project management, and business and financial expertise to water service providers (WSPs). It has a track record working with WSPs to improve their water service delivery and managerial capacity. Using such capital and in-country experience, we help the poor while engaging investors. And the project can be replicated in many other countries. Visit crs.org.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Today's readings are among the most challenging for people who live in a world and culture such as ours. In the Gospel the disciples are arguing with one another over which of them is the greatest; isn't that funny?

The Letter of St. James tells us that "where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there is disorder and every foul practice." That's pretty strong language.

In a culture that seems to value being "number one," these words cut to the heart. Jesus, in choosing to place a small child in the midst of His bickering disciples, is perhaps telling us that living a more simple life of trust in Him, is what is of true, lasting value.

These readings today are all about becoming good stewards of the gifts God so freely bestows on us. Each is different; each is valued. Maybe we could pray this coming week that we will be given the strength to embrace a life of grateful stewardship of our blessings.

I would like to thank ALL those who helped with the Oktoberfest 2018 last night! The food was great, the music wonderful and the fellowship grand. Thanks, too, to Ricardo and all the musicians and cantors for helping at the Mass prior to the dinner. It was a nice evening together.
DANKE SCHOEN!

Have a blessed week everyone!

Magnifikids Are Here!

A few copies of the children's Mass guide, Magnifikids, (with some prayers, games, saints, etc.) will be available on the shelf in the church entrance. Feel free to use one at Mass, but then bring it back for someone else to use at another Mass. Order forms will be available there, too, in case you like it and want to be sure to have one each week.

Elementary RE:

Parents, the RE classes will be conducting a Living Rosary on the first Sunday of October. You can help prepare your child(ren) by reviewing the prayers and order of this devotional prayer at home!

The whole parish is invited to join the RE students in reciting our living rosary - we'll be starting at 9:15 in the parking lot. We will surely have some openings for people to lead Hail Mary's - please join us and fill out our Living Rosary!

The Level 2 class has pledged to prepare to celebrate the sacrament of reconciliation for the first time at the Advent Penance Service on Wednesday, December 12. Please pray for them as they learn about this sacrament of God's love and mercy.

Adults:

Did you wish to participate in a study in the past few years, but were unable to for some reason? You may certainly borrow the study materials and learn on your own! In the past few years we have studied the comprehensive timeline of salvation history, the Mass, contemplative prayer, the Virgin Mary our spiritual mother, the Gospel of Matthew, the "Catholic Letters" and more. Talk with Matthew about borrowing these materials, and how to get study guides to help you get more from them.

The Indianapolis Men's Conference is scheduled for November 10th. Get your tickets soon! If we can organize a group of ten, the price drops some! Get more informed, get more inspired, get more connected to God - get to the conference. You may find more on the activities of day and the speakers at: mariancenterofindianapolis.com/mensconference/

Teenagers are welcome. Dads, bring your sons!

Crew Car Wash Coupons for a Cause

During the month of September the Knights of Columbus are selling coupons for Crew carwash. One half of the proceeds will go to fund an ultrasound machine for the Women's Center on West 86th Street, near the Planned Parenthood abortion center on Georgetown Road.

That amount will be matched by the Knights of Columbus Supreme Council, so the total amount donated toward the machine will be equal to the total amount collected for the carwash coupons.

The coupons have no expiration date, so they can be used anytime. The coupons are available in the narthex for $16 or $9 each, and would make great Christmas gifts for anyone who has a car. This is a very worthy cause and will have the potential to save many lives.

Showing Faith in Their Actions

Thank you to the four parishioners who helped at the Clayton Habitat for Humanity home building service day last weekend! We aided a family of four to construct and purchase their first home. Others were willing to join in but were unable...anyone can sign up to help on their own with the Habitat for Humanity Indianapolis chapter.

We'll have other opportunities to put your faith into action, as Saint James told us last Sunday! If you have a suggestion for a type of service you'd like to help perform, give Matthew a call to start organizing a group!

Attention Middle & High School Teens!!

The Maryknoll Student Essay Contest theme has been announced. Nearly $3,000 will be awarded to winners in each class. The deadline for entries is November 16, so don't wait to get started!!

See the stairwell bulletin board for more information and an entry form.

Mums for Sale!

There are just a few gorgeous fall mums available to be taken home and enjoyed for only $10. Look for Matthew after Mass to take one home.
