"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Thank you to everyone who helped out around the parish while I was with Monsignor Stumpf on the pilgrimage to France! Lourdes is always so powerful. This time, I finally got to visit the beaches of Normandy! Standing on that sacred ground made famous for the D-Day invasion of Europe on June 6, 1944, was so moving. I prayed there for Dad and all veterans.

For the last several weeks we have listened to readings that challenged us to use God's gifts wisely and generously. We have been called to place the needs of our neighbor before those of our own desires. Granted, not an easy thing to do.

This week, all of those commands by our Lord are captured within the summation of the commandments offered by Jesus in the Gospel, which is an echo of the first reading. Jesus tells us the greatest commandment is that we love the Lord our God with everything in our being; with everything we have. That means we place ourselves and our treasures at His disposal.

The second commandment is that we love our neighbor as we love our selves. These are the core commandments from which all others flow. Honestly, we need look no further than our own hearts to see that these two great commandments are often ignored; do we?

A beautiful image is that of the crucifix. It takes two arms to make the cross on which our Lord was glorified. The vertical beam is our love of God. The horizontal beam is our love of neighbor. It's not either/or, it's both/and.

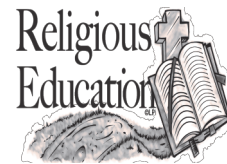

As we continue this month of remembrance; these darkening days of November, remember your beloved gone before you in special times of prayer. Make an effort to attend a Daily Mass for them. Say a rosary for them. Make a visit to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament for them. Ask them to pray for you. May their souls rest in peace!

When a parish is conducting a Capital Campaign as we currently are, the Archdiocese exempts the parish from conducting the annual United Catholic Appeal. The goal is rolled into the Capital Campaign's funds raised as part of the loan given by the Archdiocese. The Parish Council voted to do the following this year. The weekend of November 10-11, the UCA weekend throughout the Archdiocese, everyone in the parish is asked to use their monthly Capital Campaign envelope for not only their Campaign pledge (if done monthly) AND make their usual donation to the annual UCA. In other words, the monies raised will remain in our parish and be included toward our Capital Campaign goal! Our UCA goal was to be $31,975. This amount will be made part of our Capital Building goal. The more we raise "up front," the sooner we can break ground on our project! I know this can be confusing, so please feel free to ask myself or a member of the Parish Council if you have questions!!

God bless you all!

Father Michael Lutz

Elementary RE:

It was great to see some folks joining us last week for our Parade of Saints, and singing a litany of saints! Kudos to everyone who researched and shared a saint with their class, especially those who dressed as their saint! Special recognition is given to Eamon Flaherty for his portrayal of one of our newest saints, Oscar Romero. And among the several lovely Mary's, there was a terrific version of Our Lady of Guadalupe by Avery Wray. If anyone has any photos which they could share, please send them to: mqpyouthfallon@gmail.com

Adults:

Our October free trial at Formed.org has now expired. If you got the chance to take a tour around the website please let Matthew Fallon know your thoughts; whether we should seek to purchase a subscription.

Our current "Weekly Mass Readings Explained" subscription by Dr. Brant Pitre also expires at the end of ordinary time. You can view a sample of this very good series at CatholicProductions.com. Parishioners who've seen several episodes have commented that the depth of their understanding of Sacred Scripture has been enhanced, and their appreciation and participation have grown fuller.

Faithful Citizenship

Since the next election is right around the corner, the archdiocese is offering a document from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops regarding political responsibility in keeping with our Catholic discipleship. You can find it at: archindy.org/faithfulcitizenship/index.html
