"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

In today's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that the bond of marriage is a holy one. Honestly, we have to admit that the holiness of this sacred bond and union is overlooked, discounted or even mocked in our ever so modern society. Rather than being defended, the attempt now is to "redefine."

Day after day we witness couples struggling in their relationships; I know I do. Sometimes they choose to sever that sacred bond rather than live the hard work required to restore a trust and love that has perhaps been broken. Of course, one can never make assumptions nor pass objective judgment on any married couple.

As Catholics who celebrate marriage as a Sacrament "instituted by Christ to give grace," we believe Jesus' words: "The two shall become one flesh...Therefore what God has joined together, man must not separate."

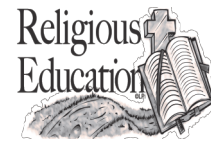

I often tell couples in preparation for marriage that it takes much love and hard work to make any marriage faithful and fruitful. At times couples can have that 'stars in the eyes' look that, while sweet, can mask the reality of making a marital relationship last. Our society and almost everything one hears or sees, if not ridiculing marriage, certainly can warp its true meaning, purpose and joy.

There exists two purposes of Christian marriage. One, is the unitive aspect; where the two pledge mutual respect, love, acceptance and support. This aspect in turn brings about the second necessary aspect of Christian marriage which is procreative. When either of these is removed or hindered (thus the ban on all forms of artificial contraception), then the sacred bond is severely strained, if not completely broken.

Today's Mass offers us an opportunity to do several things. First, if married, to renew your vows to one another in mutual and lasting fidelity. Second, the opportunity for everyone to pray for couples preparing for marriage and to assist and pray for couples known to be experiencing struggles. Third, to pray for those who have gone through, often times, as the innocent partner, the pain and loss of divorce.

On this Respect Life Sunday, a renewal in the acknowledgement of the sacredness of marriage is a good thing! May the Lord preserve all in Christian marriage and protect the sanctity of all human life from womb to natural death! Let us pray: "God, may this be so!"

Father Michael Letard

Elementary RE:

This weekend is our Living Rosary, led by the Levels 4 and 5 classes. Please join us at 9:15 a.m. on Sunday to participate in this devotional prayer - we could use some parents and adults to have enough people to fill all the prayers.

We will not hold RE classes on October 14th or 21st due to school fall breaks. We will resume on October 28th with our All Saints Day activities:

Students will be reporting on an admired (or assigned) saint in class. Students are encouraged to come in costumes depicting their saint! We will hold a parade of saints and give prizes to those who look the part. Costumes can then be re-used on Halloween ... you might get some extra candy for being creative and spiritual!?!

Adults:

Did you wish to participate in a study in the past few years, but were unable to for some reason? You may certainly borrow the study materials and learn on your own! In the past few years we have studied the comprehensive timeline of salvation history, the Mass, contemplative prayer, the Virgin Mary our spiritual mother, the Gospel of Matthew, the "Catholic Letters" and more. Talk with Matthew about borrowing these materials, and how to get study guides to help you get more from them.

The Indianapolis Men's Conference is scheduled for November 10th. Get your tickets soon! If we can organize a group of ten, the price drops some! Get more informed, get more inspired, get more connected to God - get to the conference. You may find more on the activities of day and the speakers at: mariancenterofindianapolis.com/mensconference/

Faith Formation at Home; On Your Time

You can get Formed at home! The Augustine Institute has put all their educational formational materials on the website, formed.org All their Bible studies, eBooks, movies, lectures, etc. are available for you to use at your convenience. They have allowed us a free trial of the website during the month of October - use the access code: StFrancis#18 - to be able to utilize this formational treasury. Then let Matthew know whether we should get a longer subscription.

October's Youth Group Event will be a Halloween Party on Sunday, October 28, from 12:00-3:00 p.m. in the youth room. We are going to have fall fun with hot chocolate, apple cider, play mystery games, and have a taco bar. If you want to come, please let Beth Dieckmann know by October 24th. We will need a permission slip form as well.

If you have any questions, please feel free to visit the website at www.mqpyouthministry.com or contact Beth Dieckmann at 317-709-6765 or mqpyouthgroupbeth@yahoo.com
