"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Today's liturgy of the word summons us to reflect on all the gifts our Father has given us, and urges us to be generous with these gifts. As we adore and offer prayers of gratitude to God, Who has so blessed each of us, we must always remember those who are in need. In a way, we can say this is the two sides of one coin.

It is our privileged obligation to care for our neighbor in whatever way we are able. Again, it's important for us to remember that we acknowledge the fact that we cannot do everything for everyone. However, we must and can help when and where we can!

The poor woman in today's Gospel demonstrates the way in which we are to be generous. From her heart, she gave her all!

Our gifts of time, talent and treasure to our parish are incalculable as well. Without volunteers and generous stewardship, things simply would not be done. Prayerfully consider your pledges to the parish and the archdiocese as you return to the Lord from His blessings to you!

We pray for one another; we protect one another as well. Don't forget our Veterans on this Veterans' Day! Together let us thank the vets who have protected our nation and continue to do so throughout the world! And God bless those who gave the 'last full measure of devotion!'

May the good God continue to bless and protect us!

Father Michael Leticia

HO! HO! HO! Our annual parish Christmas party will be Sunday, December 9, immediately following the 10:30 Mass. Meat and drinks will be provided and we ask that everyone bring a side dish or dessert to share. We will have a Christmas craft for the kids, games/puzzles and, of course, a visit from Santa Claus! Please join your parish family in celebrating the joy of the season. If you have any questions, please contact Ketty Palmer at 317-938-5827 or kyb11691@gmail.com.

Elementary RE:

We will have one more week of class before our Thanksgiving break.

Level 6 Parents: your child will have the opportunity to participate in the sacrament of penance and reconciliation during class time next week. Please review the steps of the rite with your child and help clarify their examination of conscience.

All Parents: our parish Advent Penance Service will be held the evening of Wednesday, December 12. This could be a great time for your child to receive God's grace and forgiveness through the sacrament. Look for a guide to an examination of conscience for children in your email soon.

Adult RE:

We will be wrapping up our current faith formation study in a few weeks. Our next Bible study will be Acts: The Spread of the Kingdom, beginning in January. Look for information on the stairwell bulletin board and a sign-up sheet.

For the past two years the religious education department has offered a weekly video series named "The Weekly Mass Readings Explained," by Dr. Brant Pitre, from Catholic Productions company. We have not found a good time to gather many people - mornings, evenings, Sundays. It is a great explanation of the meaning of the Mass readings as the earliest Christians would have understood Jesus and the Apostles' evangelization.

If you would like to suggest a possible meeting time to continue these 30-minute videos, please contact Matthew quickly...our annual subscription expires in two weeks. If you would like to sample the videos or get your own personal subscription, visit catholicproductions.com to do so!

SPIRITUAL DIRECTION offers insight and reflection into the fundamentals of committed prayer and what it means to live a sacramental life and life of faith. It also aids in discernment of one's gifts and path to follow and serve God and the Church. Advisors are available through the archdiocese. For more information visit: archindy.org/worship/guidelines-spiritualdirection.html

Archbishop Thompson is dedicating himself, with the other U.S. bishops, to seven days of intense prayer and fasting prior to the bishop's general assembly. Please pray for the Holy Spirit to guide Archbishop Thompson and the assembly to the healing and support of victims of clergy sexual abuse, for the conversion and punishment of abuse perpetrators and concealers, to lead and protect their flocks.

What is your Catholic IQ? Take the short monthly quiz from Catechist magazine. Find it on the stairwell bulletin board.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell, satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen
