“Amen, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.” - Mk 13:30-32

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

In today's Gospel, we hear the series of events that will signal the second coming of Christ. "Heaven and earth will pass away," Jesus tells us, "but my words will not pass away."

Jesus is reassuring us that His return will not signal a final end to life. The Lord promises us a life that will endure after this earth passes away. Today's readings are fitting as we experience the ending of another liturgical year and stand on the threshold of another, which will begin with the First Sunday of Advent.

Our Lord's words do, however, give us warning and significant pause for prayer. How will we each appear before Him at His return? What will the "scales" look like regarding our lives? No one is able to answer for our own personal lives and the decisions, for good or bad, which we have made. That, will be our sole responsibility.

Rather than make us paranoid or scared stiff, this fact of our religious lives, should make us grateful for the Lord's blessings and our faith! It should make us more cognizant of our actions, words and attitudes in our daily lives! It should make us take our Catholic Faith much more seriously than we normally do; its practice, its fervor and its commitment! Apathy and indifference are two of the deadliest sins we each will no doubt present before the throne of God. Today's Gospel gives us an opportunity to prayerfully reflect and re-prioritize, if need be....thanks be to God!

Remember, our parish Mass for the holiday of Thanksgiving, will be on Wednesday, November 21, at 7:00 p.m. Come, let us thank God for our blessings both as a nation as well as individuals!

While I was at Lourdes it was interesting talking with a young priest also from the USA. He has not been ordained all that many years and is now in his first pastorate. Like the majority of our priests being ordained today, he is authentic and genuine with a love for people, the Church and the Holy Mass. He was troubled by what he was experiencing in the parish. Among these: an ever increasing level of apathy and indifference. Folks may go to Mass but that's about it; no deeper level of involvement in the parish. "Let someone else do it." He has tried to introduce Adoration, having very little success in folks signing up to take part.

Many days, the number at Mass is only a handful; sometimes less than that. He has done an admirable job of teaching his parish about the authentic Liturgy called for by Vatican II, often meeting with either indifference or even hostility. He told me "so many think Vatican II said to get rid of Latin; never offer Mass 'Ad Orientem' or 'Ad Deum,' priest and people going to the altar of God in the same direction."

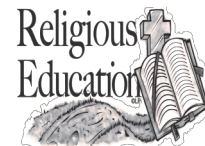

The number of folks going to confession is abysmal. It is not uncommon at all to hear that they only go during Advent or Lent. Many think nothing of deliberately missing Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation and yet receiving Holy Communion afterwards. It is as if they have no concept of what the Mass is truly about. I told him, that's not surprising considering the very poor teaching that many received in the 70's up through the mid- 90's. I know that; I lived it; I experienced it.

I did my best to encourage my younger brother priest. I told him of how much better things are compared to when I was ordained in 1985! Keep teaching, keep teaching and praying. It is hard at times but one cannot give up! Pray for all your priests....me too!

My personal thanks to all for your kind gifts of cards, words and remembrances shown for my birthday this past Sunday, Veterans' Day! I know, the sixties are the new forties. Yeah, right! I wonder who ever came up with that one?!

May the good God continue to bless us, one and all!

Elementary RE:

Thank you students and parents for your help with the collection on behalf of the Missions office. You have made this season more thankful for many; God loves you cheerful givers!

Parents: your children can experience love and forgiveness and grow closer to God at the parish penance service on Wednesday, December 12. Ask them if they want to receive the sacrament of penance and reconciliation. They can't get to church on their own.

There will be no RE classes next weekend so families can celebrate Thanksgiving. We will resume meeting on December 2nd, and begin the new liturgical year with the season of Advent!

Adult RE:

If you have not yet signed up for the upcoming study, "Acts: The Spread of the Kingdom" you can still reserve your spot on the sign-up sheet on the stairwell bulletin board. The weekly meetings will begin in January - Sunday and Monday sections.

You may get your personal subscription to, "The Weekly Mass Readings Explained with Dr. Brant Pitre" at catholicproductions.com - only $15/month or $125/year. This can really enrich your understanding of Sacred Scripture.

If you were unable to attend the informational talk about Catholic funerals and planning, you may find informational brochures about the rite that the speaker provided in the entryway to the church (upper left).

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray;
and do Thou,

O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell, satan and
all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen
