At about 4:30, we will leave to go to Christmas at the Zoo. We will be back at Mary, Queen of Peace by 8:00 p.m. The price for the day will be $15; that is to get into the zoo and get a drink while at the zoo. Bring $20 if you would like to get some food at the zoo. Please RSVP by Tuesday, December 11, at midnight.

You will also need a permission slip form filled out and handed to me the day of the event. You are welcome to only come to the event in the basement or just go to the zoo, but you will NEED to let Beth Dieckmann know ahead of time for drivers to the zoo.

“God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men.”

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

In today’s Gospel, we hear the series of events that will signal the second coming of Christ. “Heaven and earth will pass away,” Jesus tells us, “but my words will not pass away.”

Jesus is reassuring us that His return will not signal a final end to life. The Lord promises us a life that will endure after this earth passes away. Today’s readings are fitting as we experience the ending of another liturgical year and stand on the threshold of another, which will begin with the First Sunday of Advent.

Our Lord’s words do, however, give us warning and significant pause for prayer. How will we each appear before Him at His return? What will the “scales” look like regarding our lives? No one is able to answer for our own personal lives and the decisions, for good or bad, which we have made. That will be our sole responsibility.

Rather than make us paranoid or scared stiff, this fact of our religious lives, should make us grateful for the Lord’s blessings and our faith! It should make us more cognizant of our actions, words and attitudes in our daily lives! It should make us take our Catholic Faith much more seriously than we normally do; its practice, its fervor and its commitment! Apathy and indifference are two of the deadliest sins we each will no doubt present before the throne of God. Today’s Gospel gives us an opportunity to prayerfully reflect and re-prioritize, if need be….thanks be to God!

Remember, our parish Mass for the holiday of Thanksgiving, will be on Wednesday, November 21, at 7:00 p.m. Come, let us thank God for our blessings both as a nation as well as individuals!

While I was at Lourdes it was interesting talking with a young priest also from the USA. He has not been ordained all that many years and is now in his first pastorate. Like the majority of our priests being ordained today, he is authentic and genuine with a love for people, the Church and the Holy Mass. He was troubled by what he was experiencing in the parish. Among these: an ever increasing level of apathy and indifference. Folks may go to Mass but that’s about it; no one is coming to receive the sacrament of penance and reconciliation. They can’t get to church on their own.

There will be no RE classes next weekend so families can celebrate Thanksgiving. We will resume meeting on December 2nd, and begin the new liturgical year with the season of Advent!

Adult RE:

If you have not yet signed up for the upcoming study, “Acts: The Spread of the Kingdom!” you can still reserve your spot on the sign-up sheet on the stairwell bulletin board. The weekly meetings will begin in January - Sunday and Monday sections.

You may get your personal subscription to, “The Weekly Mass Readings Explained with Dr. Brant Pitre” at catholicproductions.com - only $15/month or $125/year. This can really enrich your understanding of Sacred Scripture.

If you were unable to attend the informational talk about Catholic funerals and planning, you may find informational brochures about the rite that the speaker provided in the entryway to the church (upper left).
