HO! HO! HO!

Our annual parish Christmas party will be Sunday, December 9, immediately following the 10:30 Mass. Meat and drinks will be provided and we ask that everyone bring a side dish or dessert to share. We will have a Christmas craft for the kids, games/puzzles and, of course, a visit from Santa Claus! Please join your parish family in celebrating the joy of the season. If you have any questions, please contact Ketty Palmer at 317-938-5827 or kyp11691@gmail.com.

The Middle School and High School students will be having their youth event on Sunday, December 16, from 1:30- 8:00 p.m. We will start the event in the church basement with food, making care packages for those in need, and a faith discussion. We will be having chili and cornbread for lunch.

At about 4:30, we will leave to go to Christmas at the Zoo. We will be back at Mary, Queen of Peace by 8:00 p.m. The price for the day will be $15; that is to get into the zoo and get a drink while at the zoo. Bring $20 if you would like to get some food at the zoo. Please RSVP by Tuesday, December 11, at midnight.

You will also need a permission slip form filled out and handed to me the day of the event. You are welcome to only come to the event in the basement or just go to the zoo, but you will NEED to let Beth Dieckmann know ahead of time for drivers to the zoo.

If you have any questions, comments, or concerns, please feel free to contact Beth or look at the website. 317-709-6765

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

The readings for the entire liturgical year of 2018 have led us to this weekend's Solemnity of Christ the King. This is where we take our stand beside our King!

This week the Lord Jesus tells "Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to My voice." As this text is proclaimed and we take it out into our world, let us ask for the strength to listen more attentively to the voice of the Lord in our daily lives. On this last Sunday of Ordinary time, the very threshold of the holy Season of Advent, let us remember that our call to listen to, and put into practice, the voice of the Lord, is a constant call in our lives; it is not something done once and forgotten; it is something that never ends. We must continually open our hearts and souls to do our humble best to "belong to the truth" and listen to the voice of Christ! How powerful is today's Gospel passage which we hear on every Good Friday during Holy Week. Before Pontius Pilate, His life hanging by a thread, our Lord stands as Truth Incarnate....and Pilate misses Him. So do we, don't we? We either innocently miss Him, or we consciously choose to miss Him....either one is tragic. Perhaps at today's Mass, we will see that it's time to do a little re-ordering of attitudes and behaviors.

Today's Solemnity of Christ the King is a symbol and celebration of the endurance of Christ's Church and a sign of hope. Just call to mind all the kings and kingdoms of the world over history, of how they once ruled with power and oftentimes mercilessly. Think of those governments that persecuted the Church with such viciousness that countless scores of faithful became martyrs for Christ and the Faith. Think now that most are now all gone and the only one that has endured to celebrate the Kingship of Christ is the One True Church that He founded!

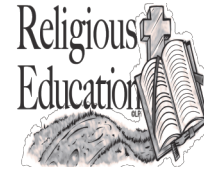

As noted above, the holy Season of Advent begins next weekend! Once again, we will have available the Magnificat Advent Booklets for daily prayer and reflection. Please take one and use it throughout the holy season. Also, from Pope Francis to many local bishops, we have been encouraged to return to the practice of praying together at the close of each Mass, the "Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel." This prayer, a part of the Mass prior to Vatican II, is being restored in recognition that the Church finds Herself in spiritual battle against the powers of evil. The purification needed in the Church has a powerful ally in St. Michael. It is printed on the back of the missalette as well in today's bulletin. Save it. We will begin the pious practice the First Sunday of Advent!

It's not too early to mark our Advent Penance Service...WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 12, AT 7:00 PM! We always have a good turnout for this. I have a total of five priests lined up to help. I told someone, he needs two just for him!

May our Eucharistic King bless us, our families, our parish and our world with His peace and His grace!
Deo Gratias!

Father Michael Leland

Elementary RE:

No class next week for Thanksgiving weekend. We will resume on December 2nd - the first week of Advent, and the start of the liturgical year.

Parents of pre-K, kindergarten and level one classes: you may find a new liturgical calendar on the bulletin boards in the RE building and in the stairwell. If your child can identify the six parables illustrated on this calendar (with your help), they will get a reward!

Students in other levels may also respond to the challenge. The first three correct lists will get a prize.

Don't forget the parish penance service on December 12, at 7:00 p.m. This may be a more convenient time for your child to receive God's loving forgiveness than on a Saturday afternoon, huh?

The Sisters of Providence (founded by Saint Theodore Guerin, the first Indiana saint) are hosting 'Christmas Fun in the Woods' on the afternoon of Saturday, December 1, from 1:00-4:30 p.m. Kids 3 and under are free, older kids are only $5.00.

Adult RE:

SPIRITUAL DIRECTION offers insight and reflection into the fundamentals of committed prayer and what it means to live a sacramental life and life of faith. It also aids in discernment of one's gifts and path to follow and serve God and the Church. Advisors are available through the archdiocese. For more information visit: archindy.org/worship/guidelines-spiritualdirection.html

You may confirm your religious knowledge with the monthly "What's Your Catholic I.Q.?" quiz. Find it on the stairwell bulletin board.

Our next Bible study will begin in January - learning about the spread of the early Church from the Acts of the Apostles. You may sign up now on the stairwell bulletin board.

There are many retreat opportunities in the Indianapolis area. Find the right one for you in the local calendar of the Criterion newspaper at archindy.org

Did you get the chance to look at Formed.org? Tell Matthew Fallon your impression of the website. Maybe we'll want to get a parish subscription?!

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray;
and do Thou,

O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell, satan and
all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen
