After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove.

Catholic Relief Service News Putting our Faith into Action

For nearly five decades the Catholic Church has celebrated National Migration Week, to reflect on circumstances confronting migrants including immigrants, refugees, and victims of human trafficking. Many factors contributed to the displacement of 68.5 million people worldwide; and poverty and migration have a very strong link. No matter where we are and where we came from we remain part of the human family and are called to live in solidarity with one another. Let us engage migrants as community members, neighbors and friends. Learn more at: justiceformigrants.org/take-action/national-migration-week/

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Today Holy Mother Church concludes the Christmas Season with the celebration of The Baptism of the Lord. Each week we gather in this sacred place to be nourished with the Eucharist of Jesus Christ. Isaiah the prophet beckons all who hunger and thirst to come to the Lord. This is precisely what has happened to each of us who have been baptized into Christ and His Church. In our hunger and thirst, we come to the Holy Mass. We come, not with any agendas or expectations, but with openness and surrender to worship the Father through the Sacrifice of Jesus!

As we celebrate the continued manifestation of Jesus to the world, we recognize the awesome potential for compassion that exists in the hearts of all who have been baptized into Christ and His Holy Church.

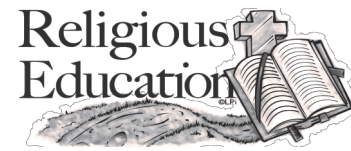

Isaiah also tells us that God's chosen ones are those who follow this belief: "A bruised reed he shall not break, and a smoldering wick he shall not quench." What's that all about? Well, quite simply it means that Jesus, and by extension His Church, and you and I are called to encourage others to the compassion and truth that exists only in Jesus Christ. It means that the wounded are to be welcomed and brought the good news that healing and reconciliation are made manifest through Jesus and those who follow Him. It means that we are witnesses to this and are quite ready, willing and able to invite others into the fullness of Truth that is His Mystical Body on earth, the Church.

The celebration of Jesus' baptism is an occasion for us to contemplate our own baptism and the responsibilities that came with it. Pray that we may be up to the challenge and the privilege!

Although called "Ordinary Time," these few weeks between today's Feast and Ash Wednesday, as well as throughout the summer months, are anything but 'ordinary.' How so? Well, the life of a Catholic and all Christians often means being 'counter-cultural' in our present days. This means, of course, that we may face opposition or even persecution for our Faith. Ergo, there really is no such thing as "Ordinary Time" for us! Let us ask the good God for His grace and mercy to fully live the life and Faith we profess!

May God's blessings be upon you this week! Let us continue to pray for one another!

Father Michael Lutz

Elementary RE:

Welcome Rosa Baer, our newest catechist! Rosa will join Pat Baldwin in our Level 5 class. Thank you for your desire to help our parents and parish train our children in our Catholic faith.

Level 5 parents: please be certain to have your student attend class next week! We will be taking the archdiocese survey of religious knowledge, beliefs and practices. This exercise will help us determine what aspects of our faith formation efforts are successful and which need some more attention.

Level 2 Parents: keep in mind that we will hold our First Communion parent meeting on the 31st of this month; 7:30 p.m. in the lower level of the church.

Procedural Change!! Please do not pick up your child(ren) from religious education classes at the sidewalk outside the building. Rather, park your car and walk in to get them. We have had a few near misses between cars and children due to the resulting bottleneck and impaired view for drivers arriving for Mass at 10:30. It will continue to be fine to drop them off curbside as traffic is greatly reduced at that time. Thank you for your help keeping our young parishioners safer.

Adult RE:

Our spring Bible study has begun. Three groups are meeting to study the book of The Acts Of The Apostles: Sundays at 9:00 a.m., Mondays at 7:30 p.m., and Wednesdays at 10:00 a.m. If you wish to join a group in the next meeting, contact Matthew so that books may be ordered.

There were four volunteers who took part in our Habitat for Humanity service day this fall. The build has been completed and the family has moved into their first home! There are plans for another building project this spring in Hendricks County - watch this space for more info.

Would you be interested in a service day at a food bank in Indy? Register your opinion on the stairwell bulletin board. If you know of another good service opportunity our fellow parishioners could take part in, let Matthew know and we will advertise for volunteers here!

Volunteers sought:

Saint Pope Paul VI wrote (in Evangelii Nuntiandi) that, "modern man listens more willingly to witnesses than to teachers, and if he does listen to teachers it is because they are also witnesses." The religious education program is looking for parishioners to share their witness with our young parishioners for 2-3 minutes, on a given topic of faith. The next Sunday we will do this will be in March, and we will share about "who Christ is for me - how I see him working in my life." If you would help us touch the faith of a religious education student on this or another future topic, please let Matthew know to get scheduled. Thank you!

The program has also created prayer cards for each of our catechists and students. We could use a hand distributing these to fellow parishioners at Mass and recruit folks to pray for those in our Sunday RE classes. Please sign up with Matthew Fallon to get scheduled and for materials. Thank you!
