"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Last weekend we heard the parallel stories of conversion of Isaiah, St. Paul and St. Peter. This weekend we hear parallel discourses concerning those who put their hope and trust in the Lord and those who do not.

The prophet Jeremiah reminds us all that those who turn their hearts away from the Lord will be cursed. Not exactly something one wants to hear, right? The one who trusts in the Lord will be blessed and blossom like a tree planted near the waters of a stream.

In the familiar Gospel passage read today, we hear the Beatitudes. I like to think of them as "attitudes of being." These inspiring words remind us that everything changed the day we were baptized into Christ and His Church. If we choose to continue to trust in the Lord, we are counted among the blessed.

One often finds the Beatitudes being misinterpreted. When Jesus speaks of the "poor in spirit" for example, He's not speaking simply of the physically poor. When we speak of the "meek, who will inherit the earth," He's not speaking of a cowering, whimpering mouse. In these and the other Beatitudes, Our Lord is speaking of the practice of the faith. He's speaking of the need to stay the course; to be courageous in the proclamation of the faith; to be humble and to rejoice when persecuted for our faith. Placed within this context, it's easy to see and understand what Our Lord was intending to say.

One of the great Patristic Fathers of the Church, St. Gregory of Nyssa, wrote: "No matter how hard I try, when it comes to God's power or wisdom or goodness, I cannot be like God. But to make myself poor, in the sense of these Beatitudes, to empty myself of all my egoism and selfishness, that is an option, a choice I can make, if I will."

Perhaps as we draw ever closer to Ash Wednesday and the start of the holy season of Lent on Wednesday, March 6, we could prayerfully consider how we have turned our hearts to the Lord Jesus, placing our trust in Him. How are we doing? How are you doing? How am I doing? Masses will be offered at Noon and 7:00 p.m. on Ash Wednesday and the first Stations of the Cross will be at 6:00 p.m. on Friday, March 8th.

Have a prayer-full week, everyone!

Father Michael Litzard

Elementary RE:

MQP will be hosting its own Vacation Bible School this June, to be thoroughly Catholic in instruction. As a result we cannot rely on other partner churches to supply several volunteers. We are depending on our own parishioners to be part of the action and make the week happen for our young disciples-in-training. If you can help mornings of June 17-21, talk with Matthew Fallon about the various roles available.

The Serra Club is accepting entries for their annual essay contest. The contest is open until March 8th to all Catholic students in grades 7-12. The contest winner at each grade will be awarded $100. Find more information including the theme, and entry forms on the stairwell bulletin board.

We had a Franciscan friar give a vocations talk to our students last week. If your child(ren) comes up with any questions about life vocations or religious life let their catechist know, or contact Matthew, and we'll pass them along to Friar John for his answers!

Adult RE:

If you would like to borrow the materials for any of our recent Bible studies, talk with Matthew to arrange a time to get them. If you have any suggestions for topics you'd like to study, bring them up; we'll work to find a resource to use!

On Sunday, February 24, the Middle School and High School are going to Subway for lunch and laser tagging in Avon. We will leave after the 10:30 Mass for Subway and then go to laser tag after. The whole day is $20. Please RSVP by Wednesday, February 20, if you want to attend. mqpyouthgroupbeth@yahoo.com or (317) 709-6765

Catholic Relief Services in Venezuela

The political and economic crisis in Venezuela is hitting our Catholic brothers and sisters hard - 87% of the population lives below the poverty line. Our charitable organization, Catholic Relief Services, is helping with emergency food, water, and medicine deliveries among the people. If you would like to make a donation to support this relief effort you may give online (www.crs.org/venezuela-crisis), by phone (1-877-HELP-CRS) or by check (Catholic Relief Services, P.O. Box 17526, Baltimore, MD 21298-8180).

Don't Forget . . .

You can always check the bulletin board located in the narthex by the drinking fountain, the bulletin board at the top of the stairway to the basement, and the bulletin boards in the religious education building for parish council minutes, forms, and other announcements that may not be in the bulletin.
