Opportunities for Spiritual Growth

St. Meinrad Retreat: The Benedictine monks who prepare our diocesan priests also educate the faith of lay persons. They host many seminars and retreats; you may view a copy of their schedule booklet near the stairwell bulletin board. An upcoming retreat on the theme, "Freedom through Forgiveness" will be held the weekend of March 22-24, to explore the power of anger to keep us captive and practical ways in which the forgiveness taught by Jesus can set us free.

Make a pilgrimage to the Shrine of Christ's Passion, in St. John, IN on Saturday, March 23. St. Malachy is organizing a trip to see the 16 life-sized dioramas of the Stations of the Cross, along with other spiritual/devotional features. A few of our parishioners have made this trip and enjoyed it thoroughly. Check the St. Malachy website for more information.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

This weekend, we welcome Fr. Wade Menezes of the Fathers of Mercy who is with us to conduct our Parish Mission! Fr. Wade was with us two years ago for a most successful Mission. Take advantage of his presence for confession and his daily conferences. Please note times of confession and Mass as well as Adoration!

In a time when we are at war, when the fear of terrorist attack grips many in our fragile world, today's Gospel sounds forth. There's no denying Our Lord's words and command: "Do to others as you would have them do to you." Can't get much clearer than that, right?

Imagine our lives and world if everyone would live this commandment of Jesus. Yet, too often we don't pray for our enemies, we neglect the needy, we hesitate to show another forgiveness and mercy... even if they don't respect us. Today, our prayer is to embody this command of Our Lord Jesus Christ!

As we gather for Mass, we stand on the threshold of the holy season of Lent, beginning March 6th. Lent will call us to be honest and humble: we are sinners in need of our Father's unending and boundless mercy.

As the ashes on Ash Wednesday are placed on our foreheads, let us ask the Lord to make this season of Lent a time of real and true renewal for us. Remember that none of us walks alone on the journey of conversion and repentance. Together, we open our hearts and souls to hear Jesus. Together, we ask for forgiveness. Together, we are called to new life!

In next weekend's bulletin you will find the regulations for fasting and abstinence for Lent. Remember, ALL Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence....no meat products. Please use the Lenten calendar insert each day for a brief reflection to set your day aright. We also will have available the annual Lenten prayer booklets for your usage. We will also be celebrating the Stations of the Cross each Friday at 6:00 p.m. beginning March 8th.

God bless you all!

Father Michael Leland

"He is there! He Who loves us so much!"

Adoration:
Thursday,

6:00-9:00 p.m.

Benediction:

Elementary RE:

MQP will be hosting its own Vacation Bible School this June, to be thoroughly Catholic in instruction. As a result we cannot rely on other partner churches to supply several volunteers. We are depending on our own parishioners to be part of the action and make the week happen for our young disciples-in-training. If you can help mornings of June 17-21, talk with Matthew Fallon about the various roles available.

The Serra Club is accepting entries for their annual essay contest. The contest is open until March 8th to all Catholic students in grades 7-12. The contest winner at each grade will be awarded $100. Find more information including the theme, and entry forms on the stairwell bulletin board.

Next week we will begin the Rice Bowl project from Catholic Relief Services. This is a good way for kids to reflect on Catholic Social teaching, and to give alms to the most needy, one of the Lenten spiritual activities. Please look over the materials your child(ren) brings home to participate during the season of Lent.

The Knights of Columbus is holding an Easter poster contest for kids from kindergarten to grade 8. You can create an original 11"x17" artwork on the theme "Where is Jesus in Easter?", and win $35 for first prize, $25 as runner-up, and $10 for third place. Look for more information and an entry form on the stairwell bulletin board.

Adult RE:

The Monday evening session of the Bible study, 'Acts, the Spread of the Kingdom', will not meet on the 25th. Come to the Parish Mission instead!

Join the elementary RE students in the Lenten Rice Bowl project. Look for the rice bowls next week, and give. 25% of all donations stay in the archdiocese (our own food pantry has received two grants from CRS).

Women's Club News

The collection of undergarments during March will include socks, in addition to underwear. All sizes for men, women and children will be greatly appreciated. The basket for the donations will be present in the narthex beginning Saturday, March 2. Thank you for your generosity.
