"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Each year on this Sunday following Easter, we listen to the Gospel story of St. Thomas, "the doubter." He has become synonymous with someone experiencing doubts, fears and anxiety in life. He refused to believe that the other Apostles had seen the risen Jesus.

"Unless I see the mark of the nails in His hands and put my finger into the nail marks and put my hand into His side, I will not believe."

Poor guy. Let's give him a break! None of us gathered here for Mass has ever had an encounter of seeing the risen, physical Jesus either. In faith, we gather each week, and even daily, for the celebration of the Mass to be caught up once again in the love that flows from the death and resurrection of our Eucharistic Christ!

Sometimes we allow that flow to ebb like St. Thomas the doubter, especially in the face of trials and pain. That's only natural. We are human after all. But we need to remember the words of Jesus to St. Thomas: "Blessed are they who do not see yet believe."

Let us turn to St. Thomas, praying that through his intercession our faith will remain strong, that through the grace of the Sacraments, it will be made ever stronger!

This Sunday following Easter is designated Divine Mercy Sunday. Saint Faustina, a young nun of Poland had the vision we see depicted in the image of Divine Mercy found to the right of the sanctuary here in our local parish church. The words "I trust in You!" are placed below the feet of Jesus. How very appropriate that, during the glory of the Easter season, we proclaim and celebrate the Mercy that is Jesus Christ! We pray that the Divine Mercy that is Jesus, will always be with us!

An early note concerning the Saturday, May 4th 5:00 p.m. Mass: We will be celebrating First Holy Communion for our young boys and girls. Due to a very large class this year (which is a good thing!), the high number of folks attending this Mass will be considerable. If you do not have a family member making his or her First Holy Communion, you might consider attending either the Sunday 8:00 a.m. or Sunday 10:30 a.m. Mass.

May you continue to bask in the glow of Easter joy! God bless!

Father Michael Litzard

Elementary RE:

Congratulations to Jean Knarr! She has completed the two-year program for full Catechist certification from the Archdiocese; our first in several years. She is inspiring for her love, dedication, and professionalism on behalf of our children.

Level 2 Parents and students: Our final First Communion practice with Father Fritsch will be held Friday, May 3, at 6:00 p.m. A family celebration will follow with pizza, cake, and a gift from the parish.

There will be no class for the Level 2 group on the morning following our First Communion Mass.

Sunday, May 12, (Mother's Day) will be a big day! The Level 2 class will help with the May Crowning of our Blessed Mother at the 10:30 Mass. We will also receive an image of Our Lady of Guadalupe through the generosity of the Cuatla-cuatl-Ramirez family.

CRS Rice Bowls: Thank you for your loving generosity to our needy brothers and sisters in the Archdiocese and around the world!

Our final class of the spring semester will be May 19th.

Adult RE:

There is still time to join our summer reading group. Sign up on the stairwell bulletin board so we may start trying to collect copies of the two books.

General Interest

Thank you to everyone who participated in our Eat Out at Los Patios night to benefit the religious education program efforts to acquire sacred art for our classrooms.

Several people have recently shared that they have not seen the movie "Fiddler on the Roof." Let's get together and watch this outstanding film Friday, June 7, at 7:30 p.m. in the lower level. You may bring a snack to share with your fellow movie-watchers.

For some years Matthew Fallon has been working some garden plots in the Danville Community Garden. The produce from this effort goes to Cypress Manor, the County Home. Planting activities are starting now. If you'd like to take part, call Matthew in the office to set an itinerary for a gardening session.

Let's Help Our Own Parish!

Do you need a hand getting some yard work or spring cleaning done? Let's get together to help our fellow parishioners with such tasks.

You may find a request form at the display in the narthex: either to fill out for assistance, or to make a connection to help with this work.

Share your love and spend a few hours to help make life better in our parish!

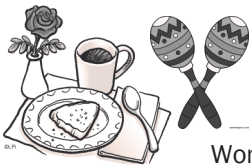

Liturgical Ministers Schedule

Weekend of May 4 & 5 Please watch your email for the next scheduling period.

Your Help is Needed

If you would like to help out our parish but prefer doing so on your own time schedule and at home, Mary, Queen of Peace could use you as a volunteer. The parish is in need of a few volunteers to help with the weekly laundering and ironing of the Eucharistic linens. If enough people are interested, this would be only a once a month or so task.

For more information or to sign-up, contact Mary Kay Hood, at mkhood9@gmail.com or 317-440-0203.

Mother's Day Tea

Sunday, May 5, 1-3:00 p.m.

Women's Club Tea! Inviting all women of the parish to a Cinco de Mayo Fiesta Tea! Come join us to celebrate with food, fun and sisterhood. We welcome Monica Kelsey, founder of "The Safe Haven Baby Boxes", and Pro life speaker here as our distinguished guest with her powerful story of her abandonment as a baby, and her journey to saving babies.

"He is there! He Who loves us so much!"
St. John Vianney

Adoration:
Thursday,
May 2
6:00-9:00 p.m.

Benediction:
Friday, May 3
8:15 a.m.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray;
and do Thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell, satan and
all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen
