1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

A VERY HAPPY AND BLESSED MOTHERS' DAY TO ALL OF OUR MOMS!! And, of course, we honor and love the Mother of us all...the Blessed Virgin Mary! How appropriate that at 10:30 Mass we celebrate May Crowning. For those of us who attended a Catholic school, how well we remember May Crowning each year. The nuns would practice with us again and again to make sure we processed from the school to the church, class by class, all singing the Litany of the Blessed Mother. One lucky girl from eighth grade would be chosen to crown the statue of Mary while a little First Communion girl would carry the crown. Believe it or not, my Mom and both of her older sisters all had the honor of crowning the statue over the years at Annunciation. I don't think that was ever matched by another set of sisters!

"My sheep hear My voice; I know them, and they follow Me." Very appealing and comforting isn't it? Or, is it? The words of Jesus offer us a unique challenge.

We all recognize certain TV shows or movies from their theme music. Who among us of the middle-aged variety, doesn't remember the music of "I Love Lucy" or "Hogan's Heroes"? How about theme music from "Jaws"? The same holds true for the younger folks among us; every generation or age group can relate.

We know the familiar melodies of favorite songs we hear on the radio, also. How many of you remember the theme of your junior or senior prom? When you were dating someone special you no doubt had "your" song, right?

All of this is important to call to mind when we reflect on today's Gospel. Given the cacophony of music, sound and voices in our lives, just how easy is it for us to listen to the sound of our Good Shepherd? I submit to you that it is difficult. But, that's the message of this weekend's liturgies; listening AND acting upon the call of Jesus Christ! We hear of those in the Book of Revelation who are singing the praises of the Lamb, those are the ones that have listened with all their hearts and souls to the voice of Jesus and are with Him eternally. That's our call and that is our privilege. What we have heard from Him; we must share. We pray for one another that it may always be so!

May Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament, bless us all! May we always receive Jesus with wonder and awe!

God bless you all!

Father Michael Suter

Elementary RE:

We will leave the CRS rice bowl collection box in the narthex and the hallway of the RE building for one more week.

Next week is our final class for the season. Please thank your child's catechist for their service this year!

Adult RE:

Read with us this summer! We will discuss In The Beginning by Pope Benedict XVI (June 29), and Divine Renovation by Fr. James Mallon (July 27). Sign up now and we will try to borrow a copy of the book for you....after that you are on your own!

General Interest

Thank you to the Cuatluatl-Ramirez family for their generous donation of an image of Our Lady of Guadalupe, which will hang to the left of the baptismal font. Next week we will examine the symbolism in the image given to Saint Juan Diego in 1531. Let's meet in the narthex at 11:45 a.m.

A parish showing of the wonderful film "Fiddler on the Roof" will be at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, June 7. If you would like to see it again or see it for the first time, bring a snack or drink to share and come down to the lower level!

For some years Matthew Fallon has been working some garden plots in the Danville Community Garden. The produce from this effort goes to Cypress Manor, the County Home. Planting activities are starting now. If you'd like to take part, call Matthew in the office to set an itinerary for a gardening session.

Let's Help Each Other Out!

Do you need a hand getting some yard work or spring cleaning done? Let's get together to help our fellow parishioners with such tasks. You may find a request form at the display in the narthex: either to fill out for assistance, or to make a connection to help with this work. Share your love and spend a few hours to help make life better in our parish!

Attention All Green Thumbs!

We will have a garden-work morning on Saturday, May 18, to clean up the landscaping around the church and rectory. If you could help for just a few hours, we will meet at 9:00 in the church parking lot. Please bring pruners and/or a leaf rake, if you have them, but we will have extras to use. Thanks.

Your Help is Needed

The parish is in need of a few volunteers to help with the weekly laundering and ironing of the Eucharistic linens. This could be only a once a month or so task.

For more information or to sign-up, contact Mary Kay Hood, at mkhood9@gmail.com or 317-440-0203.

Forever Young Cookout

Jim Disney and Mike Rollins are hosting a cookout for Forever Young on Tuesday, May 14. Brats, hot dogs and hamburgers are the main dish. Mass is at 11:30 a.m. with the cookout following. Come and bring your favorite covered dish to share and enjoy the fun and fellowship. We always welcome new members. See you there.

Don't forget you can now bring your rummage sale donations to the church basement and place items behind the blue screen prior to set-up dates of May 21, 22, & 23. Rummage sale dates are May 24 & 25. If you need the key to the church basement door, please get it from Anna at the rectory. Please be mindful to return the key to her after you are done.

Also if you would like to volunteer, sign-up sheets will be posted on the bulletin boards. Lunches will be served during working hours.

Information: Susan Bliss, 913-832-8472 or Tina Becht, 630-728-2600.

For Buyers: We will have new lower prices on items this year than last year.
