Jesus said to his disciples: "The Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you." - Jn 14:26-27a

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Mission Statement

We, the people of Mary, Queen of Peace, are called to be a Catholic faith community centered around prayer and worship and embodying Gospel values. We are a family of Christians committed to growth in faith and holiness as signs of God's presence in the world. We act in imitation of Christ, by reaching beyond ourselves in service to others.

Time & Talent

A HUGE thank you to the gardening duo of Sharon Miller and Tina Becht, who helped John Chapin with the landscaping around the church and rectory last Saturday! Cutting back the roses, weeding, and a general cleanup made such a difference. The thorns didn't stop these gals who worked for three hours, non-stop.

Little Sisters of the Poor

On Saturday, June 8, and Sunday, June 9, the Little Sisters of the Poor from Indianapolis will be at our parish seeking support for their ministry to the elderly poor. Continuing the work of Saint Jeanne Jugan, their mission is to offer the neediest elderly of every race and religion a home where they will be welcomed as Christ, cared for as family, and accompanied with dignity until God calls them to himself. Please prayerfully consider what you can give. Your generosity will be deeply appreciated.

You can read more about their home for the elderly or make a donation online at www.littlesistersofthepoorindianapolis.org.

Thank you and God bless you!

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Eloise (Katie) Reynolds and pray for the care and consolation of her family. Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let the perpetual light shine upon her. May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Today our Lord Jesus tells us that the Holy Spirit will remind us of everything that He taught; more on that a bit later. As the holy Feast of Pentecost draws near, let us pray for an ever-stronger outpouring of the Holy Spirit in our hearts and souls. We need the Holy Spirit to keep reminding us (there's that word again) of all that Jesus did and taught.

Today, Our Lord speaks of "peace;" another somewhat nebulous word in our current society. He tells us: "Not as the world gives do I give it to you." Here's the clue. Too often we think of "peace" as the absence of conflict, struggle, disagreement or suffering. In other words, we think of "peace" in negative terms. For Our Lord, however, "peace" is the presence of something....a something that the world or for that matter, our very selves, can never supply. It is an internal harmony; an internal sense of well-being and security that, even in the face of all of the above, with Jesus, true trust and peace is possible. How does one explain the horrific deaths that all the martyrs of the Holy Church have undergone throughout the last two thousand years? It is the peace of Jesus Christ within them! By continuing to love, even those who hate us, brings us the inner peace that only Jesus can offer us! Remain close to Him in the Holy Eucharist; that is the very best way to find this "Peace of Christ!"

How did our Lord intend and establish that we are "reminded" of all that He taught us? Did He just leave this up to individual whim and belief, because we think the Holy Spirit told us something? Did He simply ascend into heaven; leaving us to figure out for ourselves what He taught? I don't think so!

We have been gifted with the authority and wisdom of the Magisterium, the official teaching authority of the Church, to lead, guide and comfort us unto eternal life. Jesus never would leave His Bride alone to blunder through the centuries trying to find Her way. He gave the gift of the Holy Spirit to His Bride! And, He gave St. Peter and his successors, with the bishops in union with him, the Holy Spirit to lead and guide them, as they in turn lead and guide us. Everyone, from Pope Francis to Joe and Jane Catholic, is both guided by, and answerable to, the Holy Spirit-led Magisterial teaching of the Church. What a gift and what a blessing! Praised be Jesus Christ!

Just a reminder, the SOLEMNITY OF THE ASCENSION has been permanently transferred to the Seventh Sunday of Easter in the United States. Next weekend, June 1-2, we will observe the Solemnity. Do not forget, however, our monthly First Thursday/Friday observance of Eucharistic Adoration next week! Adoration runs from after the 5:30 p.m. Thursday Mass until 9:00 p.m. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament is at 8:15 a.m. First Friday immediately before Mass. Come, pray especially for an increase in vocations to the holy priesthood!

Another very important event on June 1stOrdinations to the Holy Priesthood for the Archdiocese! We have two men being ordained, Deacon Vinnie Gilmore and Deacon Tim DeCrane. We offer prayers of thanksgiving for their "yes" to Christ's call to Priesthood! Let us continue to make a part of our daily prayers, prayers for an increase in vocations!!

May the Good God bring to completion the good work He has begun in us!

Serra Club of Indianapolis

Join us on Monday, June 3, at 6:00 p.m. at Our Lady of Grace Monastery, 1402 Southern Avenue, Beech Grove, for an evening of faith and fellowship in promoting priestly vocations and religious life. Please contact Mike Kirk at 317-236-1546 or mkirk@archindy.org for information on this and future events as we strive, through prayer and activities, to promote vocations.

The Serra Club of Indianapolis, a lay Catholic organization, nurtures the call to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life throughout the Archdiocese of Indianapolis.

Elementary RE:

Congratulations to the five students who had perfect attendance this season:

Bailey Blanton, Ella Spurlock, Gavin Stewart (Level 2)
Eamon Flaherty (Level 3)
and our second Spurlock, Carson (Level 7).

Enjoy your DQ gift certificate!

Our cohort parishes are holding their VBS next month:

Saint Malachy: June 17-20, 6:00 p.m.-8:00 p.m.

Saint Susanna: June 24-28, 9:00 a.m.-noon

We have not gotten enough volunteers to provide this activity at MQP, but these Hendricks County parishes are fairly close and welcoming.

Adult RE:

A parish showing of the wonderful film "Fiddler on the Roof" will be at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, June 7. If you would like to see it again or see it for the first time, bring a snack or drink to share and come down to the lower level!

We still have a few more weeks of our study of the Book of the Acts of the Apostles to make up for classes we missed due to inclement weather in January.

Congratulations, Father Mike!!

Saturday, June 1, marks the 34th anniversary of Father Mike's ordination to the priesthood.

Thank you,
Father Mike, for serving our parish and all the parishes that came before Mary, Queen of Peace.

An Opportunity to Serve the Parish

The parish is in need of someone to chair the Social Concerns Commission and the Pro Life Committee. These two positions are currently held by one person, but it is possible to split the responsibilities of the commission chair and committee chair between two people.

The commission oversees the activities of the parish related to helping the needy and promoting social concerns. The Friends of St. Anthony and the Pro Life Committee are a part of the Social Concerns Commission.

If you are interested in either of these positions, contact Father Mike for more information.

Mary's greatness consists in the fact that she wants to magnify God,
not herself.
