Mission Statement

We, the people of Mary, Queen of Peace, are called to be a Catholic faith community centered around prayer and worship and embodying Gospel values. We are a family of Christians committed to growth in faith and holiness as signs of God’s presence in the world. We act in imitation of Christ, by reaching beyond ourselves in service to others.

"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

First, to all the Dads with us and for those Dads far away or deceased, we offer a very HAPPY FATHERS' DAY! May the day be a blessing to them all! And, thanks, Dad, for all you do for us!

Today we are given the opportunity to ponder the mystery of God. That should keep us busy for awhile! The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches us that "by sending His only Son and the Spirit of Love in the fullness of time, God has revealed His innermost secret: God Himself is an eternal exchange of love, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and He has destined us to share in that exchange." Pope St. John Paul II once wrote: "In the communion of grace with the Trinity, man's 'living area' is broadened and raised up to the supernatural level of divine life. Man lives in God and by God."

Today's Solemnity of the Holy Trinity invites us to praise our Father for His mercy, kindness and fidelity...shown us through the life, death and resurrection of His Only Begotten Son, Jesus Christ, through the power of Their Holy Spirit!

A central tenet of Christian faith, we worship One God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit! Just think of the many times we proclaim this faith. Each time we begin prayer, we do so "In the Name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit." Whenever we enter and leave the church, we sign ourselves with the Sign of the Cross in the Name of the Holy Trinity. When we bestow a blessing, we do so in the same Name. Jesus Christ revealed to us His Father and Holy Spirit....you can't get a higher authority than that!

Today's Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity is a day that reminds us to rise above the world and without hesitation, proclaim our faith!

This coming Monday and Tuesday, the priests of the Archdiocese will join with Archbishop Charles for our "Priesthood Days." It is a time for us to pray together, discuss important issues facing our local Church and spend time in fraternity. There will be NO MASS on Monday or Tuesday this week.

A wise priest once said to me, "You know, it's not a sin for someone to attend a daily Mass!" For those of you who are retired or otherwise able, consider joining us for the daily celebration of the Mass! Prayer for the Church, for our parish and for individual needs is so very important. It is said, "What a difference a day makes." Well, our Lord Jesus says through His Bride, the Church: "What a difference a MASS makes!" Join us.....

May the blessing of Almighty God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, be with you today, and all the days of your life!

Father Michael Lutz

Elementary RE:

Keep reading your Bible! A chapter a day in the Gospels will help you get to know Jesus better.

Also, pray a little each day. It could be standard, common prayers or it could be your own prayers, and just talking to God like you would talk to a friend.

VBS Options:

Catholic: St. Malachy, June 17-20, 6:00-8:00 p.m.
St. Susanna, June 24-28, 9:00 a.m.-noon

Christian: Danville coalition of churches (held at the Methodist church on Mill St.), June 17-20, 6:00-8:30 p.m. Pool night on June 21 in Ellis Park!

Adult RE:

The summer reading book "In the Beginning" by then-Cardinal Ratzinger has arrived in the mail. If you signed up to get one, contact Matthew to get your copy and start reading. Anyone who wants to read and join our discussion of this book is welcome - Saturday, June 29.

General Interest:

We are going to need additional catechists to help share the faith (as Father spoke about in his homily last week) during the next religious education season. Talk with Matthew Fallon about what is required and to get some training and background for helping in class. We are looking for witnesses to help in the Pre-K, Level 1, Level 5, Level 6, and Level 7 classes.

Who have been the Archbishops of Indianapolis?

Simon Brute, Celestine DeLaHailandiere, John Bazin, Jacques De St. Palais, Francis Chatard, Joseph Chartrand, Joseph Ritter, Paul Schulte, George Biskup, Edward O'Meara, Daniel Buechlein, Joseph Tobin, and Charles Thompson.

National Catholic Youth Conference

The National Catholic Youth Conference will be in Indianapolis again this year, November 21-24 for High School teens (9th-12th grade). If your teen is interested in going, we will meet on Wednesday, July 17, at 6:30 p.m. in the youth room downstairs and on Sunday, July 21, after the 10:30 Mass in the youth room downstairs. We will watch videos to give you an idea of what happens, will have an estimate for money, chaperones, food, car pooling, and hotels. You only need to attend one meeting. Registration packets are due by September 1st, but you will be able to register your teen at this meeting. We will have another meeting in the fall with greater details about the weekend. If you are a parent interested in being a chaperone, please let Beth Dieckmann know ASAP.

Confirmation Class Information

If your teen is in the 8th grade and has attended Religious Education previous years, has been Baptized and has received First Communion, your teen will be ready for Confirmation this year. I will have a registration packet out within the next few weekends. We will have a meeting downstairs on Wednesday, July 10, at 6:30 p.m. and one Sunday, July 14, after the 10:30 Mass downstairs. You will receive a binder with all important information, dates, changes, etc. for this year. If you cannot attend either of these meetings, please contact Beth Dieckmann and we can set up a time to meet.

mqqyouthgroupbeth@yahoo.com or (317) 709-6765

On Friday, July 19, we will be going to an Indianapolis Indians game. We will leave Mary, Queen of Peace about 5:45 p.m. as the game starts at 7:00 p.m. We will eat at the game and there will be fireworks after the game. It will be $20 for the night. This will include the ticket price. If your teen (6th grade thru 12th grade) is wanting to attend, please RSVP by Monday, July 15. You will need a permission slip filled out for this event. If you are a parent wanting to help chaperone and drive, please let Beth Dieckmann know.

Community VBS – The Incredible Race

A community Vacation Bible School will be held Monday, June 17, through Thursday, June 20, at the Danville United Methodist Church (DUMC). This is a free event for children ages 4 through 8th grade. Kids will enjoy crafts, music, Bible stories, science experiments, and fun.

Middle School children in 5th through 8th grades can go on local field trips and participate in service projects. The fun starts at 6:00 p.m. and goes until 8:30 p.m. each evening and includes a free dinner.

On Friday, June 21, participants and volunteers are invited to Gill Aquatic Center for a pool party at 7:00 p.m. You may register at DUMC any night of VBS.

Softball season is upon us. We will have a team representing Mary, Queen Peace in the Danville church league. Games will begin the first week of July. Schedule is to be determined.

If you are interested in joining the team contact Kira Wray by text or call at (317) 697-9852 or email: thewrayfamilyof5@gmail.com.

All are welcome! Feel free to bring a friend!
