"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

HAPPY PENTECOST! It is traditionally seen as the day on which the Church went forth to spread the Gospel truth of Jesus Christ. Because each and every one of US, no matter our vocation or state in life, no matter our age or social status, by virtue of our baptism is privileged to do the same, it is proper to speak of today as our birth to evangelization; our birth to spread the truth and life of our Catholic faith!

The disciples of Jesus went forth from locked rooms to the big, wide world, armed with the Truth that is Jesus Christ, to speak in His Name, the message of salvation open to all peoples. It serves as a beautiful symbol for all of us to break forth from the locked rooms we often place ourselves into and walk courageously on our own journey of faith, united in the Holy Eucharist!

I think one of the most touching elements of Pentecost is the fact that what once was broken and wounded has now been healed. Through Jesus Christ and His gift of the Holy Spirit, our broken and wounded world has been recreated! On a much more personal level, this healing is ours for the asking! Who among us does not need healing and hope?

Today, let us renew our dedication and commitment to the Sacrament of Penance! Jesus Christ gave His Church, through the ministry of Her priests, the power to absolve sins in His Name. That's a pretty awesome demonstration of the presence and working of the Holy Spirit, if you ask me! And so, celebrate healing! Celebrate His presence in YOUR life!

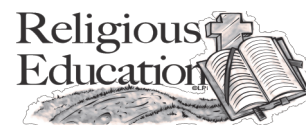

With the celebration of Pentecost Sunday, the Church officially marks the close of the glorious season of Eastertide. We will celebrate next weekend the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity followed by the awesome Solemnity of Corpus Christi. Why not make your week anything but ordinary by attending a DAILY MASS? Jesus will be glad you did!

Today, June 9th, also marks the celebration of my very good friend, Fr. Jim Koressel of the Evansville diocese's 50th anniversary of ordination to the Sacred Priesthood and also his well deserved retirement! I will be present for the Mass and celebration, of course, down in Montgomery, IN. He has been a true mentor and close friend for over 31 years. He truly is a "priest's priest" and he richly deserves all the accolades which will be given him. Keep Fr. Jim in your prayers as he enters this new part of his journey of faith! "AD MULTOS ANNOS!"

May the Holy Spirit bless, console and strengthen us all! "Come, Holy Spirit, renew the face of the earth!"

Father Michael Lutz

Elementary RE:

St. Jerome said that "ignorance of scripture is ignorance of Christ". While we are taking a break from religious education classes it is a good idea to regularly read from the Bible. Learn the events and stories that our faith is built upon to understand where our beliefs come from. A good place to start are the Gospels.

Our cohort parishes are holding their VBS in a few weeks:

Saint Malachy: June 17-20, 6:00 p.m.-8:00 p.m.

Saint Susanna: June 24-28, 9:00 a.m.-noon

We have not gotten enough volunteers to provide this activity at MQP, but these Hendricks County parishes are fairly close and welcoming.

Adult RE:

The summer reading book "In the Beginning" by then-Cardinal Ratzinger has arrived in the mail. If you signed up to get one, contact Matthew to get your copy and start reading. Anyone who wants to read and join our discussion of this book is welcome - Saturday, June 29.

The Archdiocese of Indianapolis has had thirteen archbishops. How many can you name?

Softball season is upon us. We will have a team representing Mary, Queen Peace in the Danville church league. Games will begin the first week of July. Schedule is to be determined.

If you are interested in joining the team contact Kira Wray by text or call at (317) 697-9852 or email: thewrayfamilyof5@gmail.com.

All are welcome! Feel free to bring a friend!

Scholarship Winners Announced

There were 11 applicants for the Knights of Columbus scholarships. Six Knights participated in evaluating the applications, and a composite score was tallied to determine the recipients. We only had one scholarship for each parish, which means there are those who will not get one. To call these young people "losers" would be a disservice to their unique attributes and contributions. The real winners are those who share their world. The recipient from Mary Queen of Peace is Alicia Lombardo and from St. Susanna is Renee Wright.
