"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

My remarks today are rather short. You need a break once in awhile don't you?!

Today we hear the very familiar parable of the Good Samaritan. It's meant to teach us what it means to be a follower of our Lord Jesus. We are called to respond with mercy to the needs of others. This really includes all types of people; those we know and those we don't know. Those we love and those we may find difficult to love.

What seems like a nice little story (in some parts!) is actually quite radical. How so? Well, remember in the day of Jesus, "one's neighbor" included family and clan and that was about it. Even then, if someone somehow shamed the family or tribe, they themselves were shunned or cast out. It was inconceivable to "love" someone outside the circle of known family and tribe.

We name this Gospel passage after the Good Samaritan because he is clearly the parable's "hero." I think we can identify him as a symbol of our Lord, or see him as a model of what any follower of Jesus should be as well. But let's think also of the poor guy left for dead in the ditch along the road.

When he saw the Samaritan approach, I wonder what his thoughts were? We might think a guy in the situation he was in would accept help from just about anybody, right? But, maybe not. Needing help; acknowledging our weaknesses, our asking assistance, at times isn't easy; we're too proud for that.

Ultimately of course, we need to see both our weaknesses and sins together with the compassion and grace offered us by Jesus and His Church. AND, be humble enough to acknowledge our need! So, not only are WE called to be Good Samaritans, but we are also called to admit that sometimes, we are the guy in the ditch!

The scholar of the law, asked Jesus: "And who is my neighbor?" If asked today, do you wonder what Jesus' answer would be? Ponder your answer to this question the implications it entails. Who really is your neighbor?

God bless one and all!

Father Michael Lutz

Elementary RE:

Registration for Religious Education classes has begun! You may find information packets in the narthex. Please return forms and payment to either office or the collection plate. Registrations received after August 11th will accrue a $15 late fee.

If your child is past the second grade and has not made their First Reconciliation or First Communion, please talk with Matthew so we can ascertain if we have enough students to hold a special RCIA program adapted for children.

Catechists: Plan now to attend two archdiocesan training events this fall -

Annual Gathering of Disciples. A day of formation for catechists, evangelizers, and liturgical ministers. Held at Roncalli High School from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., Saturday, September 7.

Annual Evangelization Workshop: How to Make Missionary Disciples by God's Grace. Held at St. Bartholomew parish in Columbus from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., Saturday, October 26.

Adult RE:

Have you been visiting Masses recently? Are you curious about Catholicism, or interested in perhaps joining the Church? The RCIA program (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) is the explanation and formation you will need. Meetings will begin in mid-September. Watch this space for more information.

On Friday, July 19, we will be going to an Indianapolis Indians game. We will leave Mary, Queen of Peace about 5:45 p.m. as the game starts at 7:00 p.m. We will eat at the game and there will be fireworks after the game. It will be $20 for the night. This will include the ticket price. If your teen (6th grade thru 12th grade) is wanting to attend, please RSVP by THIS Monday, July 15. You will need a permission slip filled out for this event. If you are a parent wanting to help chaperone and drive, please let Beth Dieckmann know.

In the first game of the season, the Mary, Queen of Peace softball team played Northview 2 this past Monday. We scored 12 runs against their 15. Brian Hazelton pitched. Tyler Walker had a couple of great catches in the outfield. Bill Jankowski has got some wheels!

All are welcome to come cheer on the team. Contact Kira Wray for more information, thewrayfamilyof5@gmail.com

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him,
 we humbly pray;
 and do Thou,

O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
 by the power of God,
 cast into hell, satan and
 all the evil spirits,
 who prowl about the world
 seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen

National Catholic Youth Conference

The National Catholic Youth Conference will be in Indianapolis again this year, November 21-24 for High School teens (9th-12th grade). If your teen is interested in going, we will meet on Wednesday, July 17, at 6:30 p.m. in the youth room downstairs and on Sunday, July 21, after the 10:30 Mass in the youth room downstairs. We will watch videos to give you an idea of what happens, will have an estimate for money, chaperones, food, car pooling, and hotels. You only need to attend one meeting. Registration packets are due by September 1st, but you will be able to register your teen at this meeting. We will have another meeting in the fall with greater details about the weekend. If you are a parent interested in being a chaperone, please let Beth Dieckmann know ASAP.
