“God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men.”

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Let’s begin with our Liturgy of the Word for this weekend. Abraham has always been honored by the Jewish people not only as a distant ancestor but as the very model of a man before God, whose life made others desire to know God.

This desire blends very well with the Letter to the Hebrews, wherein the vibrancy of Abraham’s faith is emphasized. As embodied in Abraham, faith is much more than simply assent; faith is a commitment to the living God.

Faith shapes our lives; it touches every aspect of our lives. None of us is perfect; that much is also a given. Therefore, each person at times “struggles” with his or her faith. Does God really hear me? Why doesn’t God answer me? Does it do any good to have faith in prayer? All of the above are the result of our fallen human nature. Beneath these and similar questions, lies the original sin of pride. We don’t say it, but what we are expressing at times is: “Why am I not God?”

Our Lord, in today’s Gospel, gives us warning....we must remember to live our faith; our life, in the awareness that one day this life will cease and we will stand before our God. He issues His warning with hope and comfort as well. How so? Well, live your Catholic faith as you are supposed to and you need not fear death and judgment! It’s really our choice. He forces no one; that’s what free will is all about. But, we need remember, choices do indeed have consequences. “To whom much has been given, much will be required.

Tickets continue to be on sale for the upcoming OKTOBERFEST 2019! The event will take place on Saturday, September 28th beginning with Mass celebrated at the Fair Grounds at 4:00 p.m.! That will serve as the Saturday evening Mass...NO CONFESSIONS that Saturday.

Remember this week comes the HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION, THE ASSUMPTION OF MARY! Masses will be Wednesday night, August 14th at 7:00 p.m. and Noon, Thursday, August 15th. We gather to honor our Mother...can’t get much better than that! Sign-up sheets for ministries are in the sacristy.

Our search continues for a new Coordinator of Religious Education. Thus far we have had only one application; we would like more. Without a Coordinator, classes most probably will not begin. This applies to the RCIA as well. I am looking into the calendar as to see just when we could put off beginning just in case we need to. Contact the office as to catechists still needed if you would like to volunteer to help teach our youth.

A blessed week to you all!

Father Michael Lutzel

Elementary RE:

REGISTER NOW for religious education classes! Forms and information are available in packets in the narthex. This is the last weekend to register without being assessed a late fee. After Sunday, August 11, the late fee will be $15. Classes are slated to start August 18.

Adult RE:

The autumn Bible study will be an “Introduction to the Bible”, from Little Rock Scripture Study, tentatively scheduled to begin August 18. This study opens the Bible for newcomers and experienced Bible students alike, providing a real boost to those looking to gain more from study of the Bible.

Participants will become comfortable finding their way around the Bible, develop a better understanding of its themes and writing styles and gain clear insights about Catholic use and interpretation of the Bible.

It is a seven-week study. Those interested may sign up on the stairwell bulletin board.

Family Promise & Stability Builders Network

The Friends of St. Anthony has been working closely with Family Promise and the Stability Builders Network. They have many needs for the homeless population that they are assisting. Mary, Queen Peace may be able to assist them with these needs. If you can help with the following tasks, please contact Candace Monzingo,: car repairs; transportation; moving help; furniture donations; and tutoring for kids.

For the month of August they are in need of diapers size 4-5-6; pull-ups size 4-5-6; and baby wipes.

Please put items in the FOSA Box. We will be collecting items until the end of August.

If you have any questions or would like to join the (FOSA) Friends of St. Anthony, please contact:

National Catholic Youth Conference

The National Catholic Youth Conference will be in Indianapolis again this year, Thursday, November 21- 24, for high school teens (9th-12th grade). If your teen is interested in going, please let Beth Dieckmann know ASAP. Registration packets are due by September 1st, and registration is online this year. After letting Beth know your teen is interested in attending, she will e-mail you the link to the website to register your teen. One more chaperone is needed. If you are interested in being one, please let Beth know.

Our annual fundraiser is approaching!

Come enjoy an afternoon and evening of food, fun and entertainment with friends and family.

Tickets are on sale every weekend until September 22.

Backpack Attack

The Friends of St. Anthony (FOSA) are collecting back-to-school supplies for local schools. Here are a few things they are looking for: dry erase markers; glue sticks; flash drives; highlighters; pencils; scissors; lined paper; and composition notebooks.

Please put items in the FOSA Box. We will be collecting items until the end of August.

We had another loss this past Monday. We scored 3 to Northview's 21. Margaret Ortiz hustled in a busy left field. Ryan Burd was quick to chase down the pop flies. We have one game left of our season.
