"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+My Dear Friends of St. Mary's,

I knew the time would come for me to write something along the following lines but I guess one never knows when it may come about. I want to thank all of you for your wonderful words of caring, sympathy and prayers as I and the family grieve the loss of my great Mom, Rita, or Miss Rita, as she was called. You all never had the opportunity to meet and get to know Mom over my time here due to her failing health these past five years. You would have loved her; a sparkling, funny sense of wit and humor, her German sense of "if you're going to do something, do it the best you can," and her sense of style. She always had to look her best, even around the house and was dusting things till the day before she passed away! For all of my priesthood and most especially after Dad died sixteen years ago, I tried my best to be home for her every Sunday afternoon until Tuesday morning. Believe me, she let me know that she was not pleased whenever I couldn't make it! I was with her since I found her on the floor beside her bed until she took her last breath and one tear rolled down her cheek.

When a priest loses his last parent, especially his Mom, he feels like an orphan; home is no more. I asked her later that night "Mom, what am I going to do on Sundays now?" I know friends and priest brothers will be there for me but the thought remains. Please keep Mom, my family and myself in your prayers. And, bear with me; it's going to take me awhile. And, thanks again.

May God, Who has begun this good work in us, bring it to completion!

Father Michael Litzard

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness and snares
of the devil.

May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray;
and do Thou,

O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell, satan and
all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen

Just 42 days until 2019 Oktoberfest, and pretty soon it will be here. Activity teams are working on the details that ultimately will make your experience one to remember.

If you plan to purchase 'Be My Guest' tickets, be sure you write your name on the back of the orange voucher so it can be part of our drawing. We will also need the name of your guests at the time of registration. Thanks in advance for sharing your love for your parish with your friends.

Our last game was a close one! Calvary scored 12 and Mary, Queen of Peace had 10. Daniel Hazelton had two awesome catches in the outfield. Ryan Burd and Tom Grundman both had homeruns. Thank you to all players who came out to spend time on the softball field with us!
