"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

"Try to enter through the narrow gate." This statement, posed by Jesus in today's Gospel, is without a doubt one of the critical statements for us in the twenty-first century.

A great temptation of us is to fall prey to the notion that the accumulation of wealth, possessions and power is the goal to be achieved above all else. When you stop to think about it, having the blessing of being able to have things in this world is just that, a blessing. Yet, at the same time, what really controls our lives? How generous are we with our time, talent, and treasure? What legacy do we really leave behind?

Perhaps saying "no" once in awhile to something that I don't really need in my life is a good thing. It seems that this is what Jesus is trying to get across to us when He asks us to deny ourselves and take up our crosses. The very idea of doing that sometimes leaves us rather uncomfortable. For in our age, the cross is certainly not what we are told is important or for that matter, necessary in order to follow Christ. I think it's important for us to pray for one another; to pray for strength and courage to do the will of Jesus; to do all we can through Him, with Him and in Him!

Tickets continue to be on sale for the upcoming OKTOBERFEST '19. Remember, all dinner tickets must be purchased PRIOR to the event for food preparation. Also, remember the Saturday Mass on the 28th will be at 4:00 p.m. at the Fair Grounds! See you there!

I am happy to announce we have a new DRE! Lynn Hansen, who graduated from St. Meinrad with a degree in theology, comes to us with many years of practical experience. Lynn is a convert to the Church, thus she brings a unique and personal aspect to RCIA as well. We look forward to Lynn being with us. We are looking for RE classes to begin the second Sunday after Labor Day (15th); RCIA on the Tuesday after as well (17th). BTW...Lynn is looking for a reasonably priced studio apartment to rent! If you, or someone you know has one, please contact Anna in the office!

May God Bless Us All!
