"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Today's Mass invites us to consider the Lord's call to be humble and generous disciples. Humility and generosity go hand in hand and are not touted as values to be sought in our society. This is an example of how Jesus challenges us right here and right now.

The Gospel parable, told during a meal, is all about sharing a meal. In it, the Lord Jesus teaches us what must be at the heart of our behavior during this time we've been given to spend on this earth: caring for the poor; both in physical and spiritual need.

As we depart from Mass today, perhaps we could ask ourselves, "How does the message of Jesus challenge me?" I believe I have shared this before but it bears repeating. A perfect definition to "humility" is "gratitude." Why so? Well, to be truly thankful, grateful means that one is humble enough to know and admit that he or she has been blessed by God in many ways. Sure, not everyone is blessed in the same way; with the same gifts, but we have to be blind not to see that each of us, in some varied capacity, is indeed blessed by God. Think about it in your own life....humility equals gratitude and vice-versa. Can you see it in your life? When one stops to prayerfully think about the connection, it makes much sense. And, once we make the connection, it becomes easier for us to share generously with others.

A special note to all parents: When you presented your child to the Church for holy Baptism, the priest addressed these words to you: "Parents, you have asked to have your child baptized. In doing so you are accepting the responsibility of training them in the practice of the Faith. It will be your duty to bring them up to keep God's commandments as Christ taught us...Do you clearly understand what you are undertaking?" I think you all know where I am going with this. It is the sacred duty and privilege of parents to see that their child(ren) is brought up in the practice of our Catholic Faith. Our dedicated Catechists can only enhance what is taught and lived at home. In other words, simply dropping a child off for religious education and then skipping Mass or not following up on lessons, assignments, projects, is not acceptable.

When I had graduated from Annunciation Catholic School in Brazil and moved on to high school, it was never a question in our house IF I was going to attend CCD class. It was a given. Mom and Dad made it a priority. Anything else simply worked around CCD time. One might say, "Oh, ok Father but times were more simple back then." Believe it or not, we had sports, band, school functions, dates, and all those things WAY back then too! Sure, there can be extenuating circumstances and these can be addressed. But, as a general rule, attendance at and living of our Catholic Faith must be number one! I simply share these thoughts with you parents as Religious Education Classes will SOON begin! Make the growing faith of your child a priority for your family!

Have an enjoyable Labor Day weekend and a prayer-full week one and all!
