"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

"This Man welcomes sinners and eats with them." This complaint, voiced by the Pharisees and scribes in today's Gospel against Jesus, describes the behavior of the Lord Jesus throughout St. Luke's entire Gospel.

That behavior is no less true right here and right now in our own day. Whether we like to admit it or not, as Pope Francis has said about himself, each of us is a sinner. Each week the Lord Jesus gathers us around the altar of the Eucharist to celebrate a Feast of reconciliation. Here we know the love and forgiveness of God. Here, as at the tables at which Jesus ate with sinners, we know the fullness of His grace and mercy.

I doubt that most of us would care to own up to saying it but, while we ourselves ask the Lord for pardon and mercy, we have difficulty at times in extending this request for others. I suppose it's part of the original sin of pride which makes us more interested in our own forgiveness rather than that of another soul. And, by extension, we often times fail to offer this forgiveness to another on our own behalf; we like to hold grudges, resentment and disrespect as if this somehow proves our superiority over another. In truth, it shows forth our own spiritual immaturity and sin.

Our Lord desires this forgiveness for us all. He gave us His Church and instituted the Sacrament of Penance for just this purpose. How sad when we fail to understand this and not avail ourselves of His Divine Mercy! As we depart today from Mass, let us try to remember the message Jesus shares with us....and extend that message to one another!

God bless you all! To Jesus Through Mary!

Father Michael Lutzel

 cast into hell, satan and all the evil spirits,
 who prowl about the world
 seeking the ruin of souls.
