"God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

Today's Liturgy of the Word continues last week's focus on the use of our material possessions. I know, you're thinking, "here we go again." But let's focus on the present moment.

The first reading is a condemnation to those who hoard their own wealth. The Gospel paints a vivid picture of what awaits those who ignore the poor (whether in body or soul) by choosing to make material wealth and possessions the center of their lives. As mentioned in my riveting homily, a modern day question could be: "Am I simply coasting on my faith as it is now, along with whatever possessions I've managed to accumulate?"

Much of today's advertising; some would say 'brainwashing,' urges us to place our hopes and desires in the promise of happiness supposedly offered by this or that. We've all bought into the lie before...Satan, the Father of Lies, knows his job very well. Everything that we amass in this life will remain behind when we die.

The promise of eternal life is the ONE promise that will never pass away! Again, it boils down to the hard and yet comforting truth that it is our Catholic Faith, its practice and zeal that calls for our attention, dedication and commitment! I know at times it seems like the same old record (remember those?) playing over and over again but it TRULY is the most important segment of our lives! I wonder why at times it's so hard for us to remember that? Let us ask the Lord for the strength to make the right choices in this life.

This day of September 29th, is a glorious one! Why? If we were not observing the Sunday Mass ordinal, today's celebration would be for St. Michael the Archangel! Wonder why I think it's so special? The answer is obvious. Now, today's Feast also includes Sts. Gabriel and Raphael but we all know WHO is the leader of the Angelic Hosts, right?! It is good that we include the prayer as we are now doing, to St. Michael, asking his angelic protection for the Church, the world and ourselves.

Speaking of Saints, this week gives us some of the most popular. October 1 is the Feast of the Little Flower, St. Therese. October 2 is the Feast of the Holy Guardian Angels. October 4 is the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi. Wow, what a line up!

May we have a prayerful week! God bless you all!

Father Michael Antkowiak
